

Geiger, Richard F.
Robert

Now a Sergeant

Richard F. Geiger, son of R. L. Geiger of 253 East Church Street, now wears the chevrons of a sergeant. He was inducted in June 1942, received his basic training at Miami, Florida, and at the present time is stationed with the Army Air Corps at Boca Raton Field, Florida. He was graduated from Liberty High School, attended Bethlehem Business College and before his induction was employed by the Brown and Borhek Company. Sgt. Geiger has a brother, Robert Lewis Geiger, who is a second class seaman stationed in Newport, R. I.
