

Brubeck, Elwood H.

JUN 26 1946

Sgt. Brubeck Assigned To Lehigh Staff

Master Sergeant Elwood H. Brubeck, of Staunton, Va., has been assigned to the staff of the department of military science and tactics at Lehigh University, it was announced this morning by Col. P. L. Sadler, commandant of the Lehigh unit. Brubeck succeeds Master Sergeant George F. Gasda, who will leave the university for his retirement furlough on July 1 after more than 15 years of service.

Brubeck has been a member of the United States Army for nine years. He will teach rifle marksmanship at Lehigh and become the Lehigh rifle team coach.

During his tour of duty in the Army, Sgt. Brubeck served in both the European and Pacific theaters of operation with the 231st General Hospital. For three years he saw duty with the infantry as a member of the 8th Division, and for another three years he served in the Armored Force as a member of the 2nd and 16th Armored Divisions. Another year was spent on duty with the Military Police.

Sgt. Brubeck comes to Lehigh from Ft. George E. Meade, Md. He is married and the father of a son and a daughter.

Jun 26 1946