

Brady, Mark Aloysius

NAVAL RADIO OPERATOR—
Above, Mark Aloysius Brady, 32, of 84 West Market Street, who was among a class of 25 men to graduate from the Charleston Navy Yard Radio Operator's Training School following an intensive sixteen week course, officials announced today. He will be assigned to a naval communications post. Brady enlisted in the Navy on December 16, 1941 at the Washington, D. C., recruiting station and entered the service as an apprentice seaman. Upon graduation from the radio school he was promoted to seaman, second class.
—Official U. S. Navy photograph

June 5, 1942