Lt. William Klink
Slightly Wounded

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Klink of 3217 Center Street received a telegram from the War Department this morning informing them their son, Second Lieut. William J. Klink, was slightly wounded in Germany on March 14, one day after his 22nd birthday.

Lieut. Klink, a machine gunner with an infantry unit, is the wearer of the Bronze Star for participation in a battle in Germany and the Combat Infantry Badge. He saw service in France before moving to Germany.

Entering the service February 20, 1943, he received training at Fort Jackson, S. C., Camp Campbell, Ky., and Camp Gordon, Ga., before being sent overseas, arriving in France September 10, 1944. At that time he held the rank of sergeant, becoming a staff sergeant November 28 and technical sergeant December 16. On February 18, 1945, he received his commission as second lieutenant.
