

Carolina Girl Becomes Bride Of Navy Ensign

In the Old Moravian Chapel at 4 o'clock this afternoon, the marriage of Miss Anne Lyle Apperson, daughter of William Apperson of Duram, N. C., and late Mrs. Apperson, and Ensign George Buckner II, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Buckner of By-the-Way Farm, Saucon Valley, took place. The Rev. Byron K. Horne, pastor of Central Moravian Church, officiated.

Given in marriage by Norman J. Hittinger, the bride was gowned in rose beige crepe with rose beige and powder blue accessories, and carried a matching bouquet of roses and delphiniums. She was attended by Miss Helen M. Edgar, of Philadelphia as maid of honor.

Mr. Buckner was his son's best man and Joseph D. Buckner, a brother, was usher.

The chapel was decorated with a profusion of white lilacs. Mrs. Frederick J. Pearson, organist, played the traditional wedding music.

A reception and dinner for the immediate families followed at Saucon Valley Country Club.

On their return from a brief wedding trip to Philadelphia, the couple will reside at the home of the bridegroom's parents for the balance of his leave.

The bride is a graduate of Durham High School and attended Duke University.

The bridegroom was graduated from St. Andrews School, Middletown, Del., and Lehigh University in October, 1943. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity. He was called to service in January and attended the Midshipman's School at Northwestern University, Chicago. He was commissioned Wednesday and is now home on leave until May 21, after which he will report to Savannah, Ga., to await assignment to a battleship.
