

Brong, George

Capt. George Brong
Returning Home

OCT 17 1945
Returning home with the 43rd Infantry (Winged Victory) Division from Japan after 27 months overseas service in the Pacific theater, is Capt. George C. Brong, M. C., husband of Mrs. Mildred M. Brong, Bath.

Capt. Brong left for Pacific service with the First Cavalry in June 1943 and has been in every campaign of that organization, holding battle stars for the New Guinea, Bismark Archipelago, Leyte and Luzon campaigns. The First Cavalry is noted as the liberators of Manila and was later one of the first fighting units to occupy Japan. For meritorious service during combat, Capt. Brong was awarded the Bronze Star medal. He also holds the Combat Medical badge.
