

Mills, Harold E.

Navy Accepts 13 Local Men For Service

The Navy recruiting station at the Allentown Post Office yesterday accepted 87 men from this area for the service, including 13 men from Bethlehem. Out of 87, four successfully passed the Eddy test for radar training and were sworn in as seamen first class and transferred to the radar school to begin nine months training in electronics. On the completion of the course, they will be rated as petty officers.

Successful applicants for radio technician training were: Donald C. Kolb, Drinker House, Lehigh University, Bethlehem; Wayne H. Sherer, Box 125, Lafayette College, Easton, George H. Sanborn, 517 Seventh Avenue, Bethlehem, and Edgar A. Kerrick, Lehigh University, Bethlehem.

Others from Bethlehem are:

Harold E. Mills, 1248 Maple Street; Gustave P. Bleier, 605 Sioux Street; Frank E. Obal, 1015 Delaware Avenue; James F. Bold, 559 Ontario Street; Edward C. Beers, 1406 Iron Street; Mathew A. Stofanak, 744 Atlantic Street; Ronald C. Mitchell, 212 Garrison Street; Charles L. Simley, 623 North New Street; Raymond L. Schoch, 1513 Linden Street.

From Coopersburg:

Lawrence H. Moyer, Fairview Street; Charles E. Bevington, Box 394.

Harleigh R. Kemmerer, Center Valley; Ralph W. Miller, Nazareth, R. 3; Kenneth R. Millheim, Nazareth, R. 3; Gene G. Seyfried, Nazareth, R. 2; Carl J. Milkovitz, Green Street, Bath; Gene Tuney Spengler, 2321 Washington Avenue, Jerome G. Hess, 1609 Main Street, Northampton; Gene N. Waters, 39 Main Street, Quakertown; Paul V. Grey, 1124 Railroad Street, North Catasauqua; Leon O. Zimpfer, 739 Front Street, Ray R. Diehl, 13 East High Street, Nevin W. Schrantz, 1422 Main Street, of Hellertown.

Men from nearby communities were:

Edgar H. Iobst, Jr., 244 Main Street, Walter F. Moyer, 428 North Fifth Street, Donald G. Fegley, 234 North Street, all of Emmaus; Walter J. Ernst, 347 Calvert Street, Edward C. Decking, 107 Waverly Avenue, Frederick E. Baltsar, 216 Fifth Street, all of Fullerton.

Jun 7, 1945