FELLOW WORKERS FETE

Christein JOHN E. CHRISTEIN

John E. Christein was the guest of honor at a farewell party recently tendered by his co-workers of No. 2 Machine Shop, second floor, of the local plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company. On Monday, he joined the U. S. Marine Corps, and his many friends feel certain that he will make an excellent "leather-neck."

He was the recipient of many handsome gifts, the presentation being made by Earl L. Morgan, department superintendent.

During the evening's program J. Atkinson entertained with songs and dances, while Jean Sorrentino and Anna Marie Garin favored with piano selections. A buffet luncheon was served.

Those present included E. L. Morgan, G. Trembath, E. O. Lynn, T. Sheetz, J. Fritz, F. Sarkozi, J. Atkinson, G. Welty, W. Reisinger, M. Ford, Anna Maria Garin, Jean Sorrentino, Mary Domenick, Rose Domenick, Mary DiFulvio, G. Fidmek, F. Chrismer, G. Farkas, G. Sockernoski, J. Kozo, H. Smith, F. Billezzi, H. Hoanzl, G. Shaton, T.
