

Williams, David L.

Bombardier Graduate

Lieut. David L. Williams, Bangor, is one of the members of three record-breaking classes of bombardiers who expect shortly to be fulfilling President Roosevelt's orders to drop "tons upon tons" of explosives upon the Axis, graduated yesterday at the West Texas Bombardier Triangle, the largest training area of its kind in the world. JAN 29 1943

LIEUT. DAVID L. WILLIAMS

The class during its training made use of many new techniques and items of equipment developed during the last few months to increase the accuracy of precision bombing.

Jan. 29, 1943