

NARolesky, Edward
Joseph

Wounded

Mrs. Frank Halleman, 827 Sheffield Street, received a telegram from the War Department telling her that her brother, Pfc. Edward J. Narolesky, has been seriously wounded in action in France, July 22. Before his induction a year ago he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Co. A brother, Joseph Narolesky, S 1-c, is somewhere in the Pacific.

August 10, 1944