AS Hauze Assigned As Aviation Student

AS Richard C. Hauze, 6428 Hottel Avenue, this city, who recently graduated from Armorers School at Lowry Field, No. 2, Air Force Technical Training Center, Denver, Colo., has been assigned as an aviation student at Nashville Army Aviation Center, Nashville, Tenn. 1943

He will be remembered as one of the cheer leaders at Liberty High School and was inducted into the Army with a contingent which left Bethlehem for New Cumberland the day before last Easter. He received his basic training at Greensboro, N. C., and was then sent to Lowry Field, where he took his Aviation Cadet examination then to Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., for further examinations, from where he was assigned to his present post at Nashville.

He celebrated his 19th birthday anniversary on Oct. 20 by calling his home at 10:45 in the evening from St. Louis, and received felicitations from members of his family. He has not been home since he was inducted. He has a brother, William J. Hauze, Jr., who was recently assigned to the Army Air Corps at Sheppard Field, Texas, where he is taking his basic training. He also is an Aviation Cadet candidate.
