

Katradis, Dorothy Ida May

Bethlehem Girl

Sworn In WAC

DEC 15 1944

Adding her name to the mounting list of women from the Lehigh Valley now in the Women's Army Corps, Dorothy Ida May Katradis, 24, 605 South Bergen Street, this city, was sworn in last night by Captain A. D. Hudson, commanding officer, Allentown WAC Recruiting District, 216 Post Office, Allentown.

In swearing Miss Katradis, Captain Hudson advised she would leave for Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., after the holidays and he also stated that the coming few weeks would see an increased call for more WACs, as their efficiency and esprit de corps had made them an invaluable and integral part of the Army.
