

Roberts, Charles H.

Receives Rating

AUG 18 1944

Seaman 1-c John Schlamp, U. S. Navy, son of Mrs. Charles Clewell, 19 West Center Street, Nazareth, was recently promoted from the rank of Seaman 2-c.

He enlisted in the Navy on March 24, 1944, received his boot training at Bainbridge, Md., and was later stationed at Norfolk, Va.

He spent last week-end at home, reporting to Boston, Mass. Prior to his enlistment, he attended Nazareth High School.

In Ground School

ALEXANDRIA, La.—Second Lieutenant Charles H. Roberts of 259 Ninth Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa., has been assigned to the ground school at Alexandria Army Air Field, a Flying Fortress combat crew training center.

Alexandria Army Air Field is part of the Second Air Force, which trains the bulk of heavy bombardment crews in the United States.

Lt. Roberts graduated from Liberty High School. He is the son of Mrs. Elsie M. Roberts, 259 Ninth Avenue, Bethlehem.

August 18, 1944