

Eisenhart, Lawrence

Reveal Nuptial Of Local Girl To Army Man

OCT 22 1943

Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Malburg, 504 Third Avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Martha Malburg, to Lieut. Lawrence Eisenhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eisenhart, 615 Cherokee Street, which took place Saturday, Oct. 3, 1942.

The military wedding was solemnized in the post chapel at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation by Chaplain Leon M. Hall.

The bride was given in marriage by Col. Homer B. Pettit and was attended by Mrs. Homer Pettit of Washington, D. C. Lieut. Ralph Owen of Kentucky served as best man.

Following the ceremony, in military tradition, the couple was escorted in a caisson to the Officers' Club of the Engineers' Regiment, where a reception and supper took place.

The bride is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School, class of 1938, attended Moravian College and Seminary for Women and was graduated from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing with the class of 1943.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bethlehem High School with the class of 1937. He attended New Mexico School of Mines, Michigan Institute of Technology and Lehigh University prior to entering the armed services in June, 1941.

He received his commission Aug. 5, 1942 at Fort Belvoir, Va., was sent to Camp Gordon, Ga., attached to an engineers' regiment. From Camp Gordon, he was transferred to Indiantown Gap Military Reservation. Since January, he has been serving overseas, somewhere in the Middle East.

Mrs. Eisenhart is at present on the nursing staff of St. Luke's Hospital and resides in the Annex Nurses' Home and at 504 Third Avenue.

October 22, 1943