

Climate change author gives keynote at book festival in which BAPL partners

The Bethlehem Gadfly Arts, the, Climate Action Plan March 24, 2021

 Latest in a series of posts on the Arts in Bethlehem

224 Main St., Emmaus

Lehigh Valley Book Festival

Lehigh Valley Book Festival - Series of Events 2021

Registration Opens Friday, March 19

@LVBookFest

Lehigh Valley Book Festival
-A Virtual Series

Fridays @ 6 pm & 7 pm
Saturdays @ 10 am

Friday, March 26
through Saturday, May 1 |

VISIT
www.lvbookfest.com for details

 PRESENTED BY

2021 - A Virtual Series

The Lehigh Valley Book Festival is a celebration of books and the strong connections they forge – bringing published authors, illustrators and readers together, through thoughtful, approachable and inclusive programming. Our mission is based on the notion that reading is for everybody – and that people of all ages and interests can find something to spark their imagination, broaden their perspective and nourish their spirit in a book.

Schedule of Events

Participating Authors

Frequently Asked Questions

About Us

Follow the Facebook Page and help spread the word!

Gadfly is especially interested in the keynote address:

LV Book Fest - Closing Keynote, David Pogue

@LVBookFest

30 KEYNOTE
Closing Presentation
APR 6:00 pm

CBS News Sunday Morning
5 time Emmy-winner,
DAVID POGUE

How to Prepare for Climate Change:
A Practical Guide to Surviving the Chaos

How to Prepare for Climate Change
A Practical Guide to Surviving the Chaos
David Pogue

Let's Play Books Bookstore, in partnership with the Bethlehem Area Public Library, is proud to present, the Inaugural Lehigh Valley Book Festival, to be held annually, the last weekend in March, commencing in 2020.