

Oct 21 1942

ENTERS NAVAL RESERVE, GIVEN PARTY BY FRIENDS

Charles Romig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Romig, of 1431 Center Street, will be sworn into the United States Naval Reserves Wednesday, one day after he observes his 17th birthday. He expects to be sent to a Naval training station. He attended Bethlehem High School and was employed at the College Theater.

Sunday evening, his parents honored him with a surprise birthday and farewell party. Present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Readler,

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Yeager, Mrs. Lewis Moyer and sons, Lewis and James, Mrs. Susan Rodgers, Mrs. Annie Smith and daughters, Jean, Doris and Anna Mae, William Kincaid, Helen Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. Kiebold and sons, James and William, Mr. and Mrs. George Musselman and children, Jean and

Lucella, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Radcliff and sons, Warren and Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Romig and daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minnich and children, Betty Jane and Walter, Jr., Clara Ackerman, James Ackerman, Eva Struss, Helen Brewer, Hilda Windish, Charles Romig, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Romig.

Also present, to the great pride of the young naval recruit, was his 87-year-old great grandfather, Thomas Ackerman of Bethlehem.

On Saturday evening, Charles was guest of honor at a party given by his co-workers at a local theater.

Romig, Charles

October 21, 1942