

Sandoe Jr., George

Given Badge

Mr. and Mrs. George Sandoe, 49 W. Spruce Street, received word that their only son, Private George Sandoe, Jr., interned at a 117th Station Hospital had been awarded the combat expert's badge for meritorious service while with an Amphibian unit.

Pvt. Sandoe enlisted in November, 1943, and after completing his training at Camp White, Oregon, was sent overseas in June, 1944. He has seen considerable action in the Philippines.

A former Globe-Times newsboy, he attended Bethlehem Technical High School. He is a member of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.
