

Ternyik, Joseph

Jun 26 1945
Sailor Advances

Joseph Ternyik advanced to Radioman 3/C before returning to his wife, the former Helen Judd and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ternyik, Sr., 1810 East Second Street.

Ternyik received his boot training at Newport, R. I. and in September, 1942, was transferred to Quonset Point Naval Air Station, R. I. and to Westerly Naval Air Station, also in Rhode Island. He was sent to sea in January, 1944 and at the return of his first trip, was sent to Radio School at Portland, Maine.

Since returning to active sea duty again, he saw action at the Anzio Beach and on the Italian and French ports. His present base is in Boston, Mass.

While on his 10 day leave, Radioman Ternyik spent a few hours with his brother, Cpl. Louis Ternyik, recently returned from 30 months active duty in the Pacific theatre.

June 28, 1945