

DeFrancisco, Elmer J,

Janet Galbraith Becomes Bride of Soldier Sunday

Sunday afternoon at the home of the bridegroom, the Rev. Dr. G. Franklin Gehr, pastor of Salem Lutheran Church, officiated at the marriage of Miss Janet G. Galbraith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith, 44 East Spruce Street, and Priv. Elmer J. DeFrancisco, U. S. M. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFrancisco, 503 West Fourth Street.

The bride wore white taffeta and lace, a fingertip veil falling from a coronet of flowers and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and larkspur, Mrs. Charles Benner, her sister, was matron of honor, while Mr. Benner served as the bridegroom's best man. Mrs. Benner wore blue chiffon, a coronet of flowers and carried pink gladioli.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride will reside at the home of the bridegroom and Pvt. De Francisco will return to his base at New River, N. C., after a brief furlough.

The bride is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and is employed by the Sure Fit Products Company. The bridegroom attended Bethlehem schools.
