

Bartholomew, Leroy

Area Soldiers On War Dept. Casualty List

SEP 30 1944

In a newspaper release from the War Department, the names of the following men from this and nearby areas have been listed as wounded or killed in action:

WOUNDED

Pvt. Leroy Bartholomew, son of Mrs. Naomi Bartholomew, Route 2, Easton; Pvt. Joseph Bertalon, son of Mrs. Mary Bertalon, 1215 Russell Avenue; Pfc. Raymond Kellow, son of Mrs. Lillie Kellow, Pen Argyl; Pvt. William Lerch, son of Mrs. Ruth Lerch, 1425 Spring Street, Easton; Pvt. Anthony Larosa, husband of Mrs. Margaret Larosa, 913 Washington Avenue, Easton; Pfc. Carlos Tyson, husband of Mrs. Laura Tyson, 628 Cleveland Street, Allentown; Pvt. Russell Wolfinger, husband of Mrs. Catherine C. Wolfinger, 106 South Sixth Street, Perkasie.

Included in the list of those wounded in the European theater are: Pfc. Robert Ziegler, husband of Nancy Ziegler, 125 South Jefferson Street, Allentown; and Pfc. Chester Zmarzley, son of Joseph Zmarzley, Route 2, Northampton.

KILLED

Technician Fifth Grade George W. Walter, husband of Mrs. Dorothy M. Walter, Pen Argyl, was reported as killed in action in the Asiatic area.

The Bethlehem youth reported killed in action in the European theatre of war was Pfc. William Pribula, son of Mrs. Anna Pribula, 1607 Mechanic Street.

Two Allentown soldiers listed as killed in the Mediterranean area are: Pfc. Carl Kauff, son of Mrs. Mayme Kauff, 27 East Allen Street, and 2nd Lieut. Donald Reinicker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reinicker, 35 North Fulton Street.

Pfc. Rosario Sorbello, son of Mrs. Lucy Sorbello, 1233 West Broad Street, Quakertown, was reported as killed in action in the Southwest Pacific.

Sep. 30, 1944