STANLEY WOHLBACH LESTER AND LEON WOHLBACH

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey M. Wohlbach, Hellertown R. D. 1, are proudly displaying a five-star service flag, representing their three sons and two sons-in-law.

Pfc. Stanley H. Wohlbach entered the service July 21, 1942, and received his Air Corps training at Fort George Meade, Md., Camp Wheeler, Ga., and Morrison Field, La., where he is stationed.

Pfc. Leon D. Wohlbach and Pfc. Lester Wohlbach, twin brothers, were inducted March 30, 1943. They received their Glider Infantry training at Camp Mackall, N. C., Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Nashville, Tenn., where they received their diplomas qualifying them as glider men. Both are somewhere in England at present. Leon Wohlbach is married to the former Dorothy Marino and is the father of a son, Leon Jr.

The two sons-in-law are Pfc. Ernest Judd, husband of the former Anna Wohlbach, now stationed at Camp Van Dorn, Miss., and LeRoy Huber, Fireman First Class, husband of the former Helen Wohlbach, now stationed at Norfolk, Va.
