

Matyas, Andrew R.

Third Stripe

DEC 26 1945

Andrew R. Matyas, son of Mrs. Anna Matyas of Easton, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant in the Medical Corps.

The new 'Sarge is a graduate of Easton high school and before his induction in April, 1944, was employed by Chipman Knitting Mills. He received his training in Texas, Fitzsimmons, Colo., and a General Hospital in California.

Sgt. Matyas, who is spending a furlough at present with his wife, Betty Matyas, 613 Evans Street, was last on duty aboard a victory troop transport in the East coast.
