

WEST SIDE GIRL WED TO ARMY SERGEANT

NOV 23 1942
Evelyn Kincaid Becomes Bride of Staff Sgt. James Clause in Old Chapel.

In the Old Moravian Chapel Saturday at 5:30 p. m., Miss Evelyn Kincaid, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence H. and the late Mr. Kincaid, 251 Franklin Street, was married to James H. Clause, a Staff Sergeant in the U. S. Army and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clause, 511 Schaefer Street, Rev. J. S. Groenfeldt, of the West Side Moravian Church, officiating. Both young folks have been active in the work of the West Side Church.

MRS. JAMES H. CLAUSE

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride was attired in white slipper satin and wore a finger tip veil. Her bouquet was of red and white roses. Her sister, Miss Dorothy Kincaid, as maid of honor, wore rust faille, with matching headdress. She carried Talisman roses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. George Cole, of East Paterson, N. J., also a sister of the bride, wore blue faille with matching headdress and carried Talisman roses.

Best man was Pfc. Edward C. Masten, of New Cumberland, and ushers were Floyd F. Bartholomew, Jr., and Richard Hoffert.

Theodore H. Hartmann was soloist. He sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love."

Fred B. Hartmann was at the organ and in addition to the traditional wedding marches played Schumann's "Traumeri" during the ceremony and in a recital prior to the ceremony, "Andante" (Gluck), "Sarabane" (Handel), "Romance" (Schumann) and "Serenade" (Schubert).

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride. The couple left today (Monday) for Barksdale Field, La., where they will reside.
