

Brophy, Charles W.
" , John M.

BROTHERS TO LEAVE FOR ARMY TOGETHER

JAN 12 1943

Charles and John Brophy Inducted Into Service.

Charles W. Brophy, employed by the Times Publishing Company the past three years, was inducted into the United States Army yesterday at Allentown and will report for duty next Monday at New Cumberland. He is the seventeenth man from The Globe-Times and Times Publishing Co., to enter the armed services.

His brother, John M. Brophy, was also inducted yesterday. John is employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company No. 6 Annealing Plant. Both soldiers are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Brophy, 1940 Hanover Avenue, Allentown (Rittersville Section).

Also inducted yesterday at Allentown was Vincent J. McCafferty, Allentown, brother of Neil J. McCafferty, a member of the editorial staff of the Globe-Times.

Jan 12, 1943