

Rothman reports for the Environmental Advisory Council

The Bethlehem Gadfly Climate Action Plan, Environment, Environmental Advisory Council, Serious Issues December 4, 2019

 *The latest in a series of posts relating to the environment,
Bethlehem's Climate*

Action Plan, and Bethlehem's Environmental Advisory Council

Note well: City Council is taking applications to fill a vacant position on the EAC.

To apply, email a letter of interest along with a resume to Adam Waldron, Council President (awaldron@bethlehem-pa.gov).

At the end of the letter cc: Members of Council. When sending, copy the email to Clerks@bethlehem-pa.gov enabling the City Clerk to distribute the application to Members of Council. Application may also be mailed to City Hall, 10 East Church Street, Bethlehem PA 18018.

Bethlehem's volunteer Environmental Advisory Council was well represented in presentations at City Council last night.

Here is chair Lynn Rothman presenting this very active committee's annual report.

EAC 2019 Yr End Report

Your non-tax dollars valuably at work!

Gadfly strongly encourages his environmentally focused followers to attend the EAC meetings (7PM, first Thursday of the month, in the beautiful Illick's Mill) and to apply for membership on the Council.

This group gets things done!

It's Wednesday, December 4, do you know where your local Climate Action Plan is?
