Trio of Brothers Promoted
Three brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davies, Sr., 1538 Center Street, and all serving their country in the various branches of the armed forces, have recently won promotion in rank. FEB 12 1943

SGT. CLAYTON H. DAVIES

Clayton, Jr., has just been made a corporal. He is in the Air Corps and is somewhere in the Southwest Pacific. He enlisted in May of 1942, leaving the Bethlehem Steel main office. He is a graduate of Bethlehem High School, class of '40.

TECH. SGT. ROBERT S. DAVIES

Brother Robert, 29, is a technical sergeant now, having been advanced from staff sergeant about two weeks ago. He is in the Quartermaster Corps and is a veteran soldier, having enlisted seven years ago. He, too, is Bethlehem High School graduate, class of '28. He's stationed somewhere in the Caribbean theatre of action.

CURTIS A. DAVIES
(Acct. Senior Grade)

The third brother is Curtis, 25, also a veteran. He joined the army in 1935 as an accountant in the Engineer Corp. A few days ago he was made a senior accountant. He graduated at Bethlehem High and Business College and was employed by the Bethlehem Foundry and Machine Company before enlisting. He is on duty at Baltimore, Md.

A brother-in-law, Andrew J. Baldwin, of Easton, is undergoing basic training at Camp Lee, Va.
