

Czar, Frank J.

AWARD FOR A "SHY" FELLOW—
Corporal Frank L. Czar, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Czar, 511 Spring Street, to whom the Distinguished Service Cross was awarded for heroism in the North African campaign, according to a dispatch Monday from the U. S. War Department. "He was a shy fellow," proudly said his sister, Erma, when asked about her brother, but the War Department said he "accompanied two enlisted men in an assault on a lighthouse on November 8, crossing barbed wire under heavy fire and capturing 12 of the resisting force, later helped to man an abandoned enemy tank and delaying an enemy attack."
