

Promoted in Italy

APR 19 1945

Mrs. Anthony J. Krasnai, the former Mary Kovacs, Bethlehem R. D. 4, received word of her husband, Anthony J. Krasnai's promotion to Private First Class while serving with the infantry in Italy. Overseas for the past thirteen months, Pfc. Krasnai wears the Good Conduct Medal and the Purple Heart, awarded to him for wounds received in Italy, September 18 1944. He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to entering the service exactly a year and a half ago this week. His brother, Pfc. Joseph Krasnai, recently returned from two years overseas duty and is stationed at Camp Lejune, N. C., at present. Mrs. Krasnai and their two-year-old son, Anthony Jr., reside at the Bethlehem address.
