

Captain's Rank Won By Pair Of Easton Men

Two Easton men, James J. Wohlbach and Atty. Raymond C. Weber have been promoted to the rank of captain in the Army, it was learned yesterday.

Capt. Weber, 209 W. St. Joseph Street, arrived home yesterday for a furlough of 10 days, after graduation from the Judge Advocate General's school at Ann Arbor, Mich. He will leave next week for a post at San Francisco.

Capt. Wohlbach telephoned from Washington to his bride of a month, the former Miss Dorothy M. Roth, 22 Henderson St., Phillipsburg, and to his mother, Mrs. Ada K. Wohlbach, 332 W. Berwick St., Easton, that he had completed the officer's basic course at the infantry school in Ft. Benning, Ga., and had been assigned as field engineer to the academic department, infantry school. He is a graduate of Easton High School and of Lafayette College. Previous to being called to active duty he was associated with the Bethlehem Steel Company as a mechanical engineer.

Mrs. Wohlbach and her sister, Miss Eleanor, left last night to join the captain at Benning Hills, Ga.
