

Applegate, Robert T.

Two Local Men
Arrive In Miami
After Overseas Duty

When 26 ATC planes landed in seven hours today at Air Transport Command's Army Air Field in Miami, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia veterans were among the passengers.

With them were T/4 Fred C. Domiyan, 306 South New Street, who served 30 months in Italy with an Air Corps Fighter Group, and Pfc. Robert T. Applegate, 803 Evans Street, who was overseas 28 months with the Infantry. T/4 Domiyan holds five battle stars and Pfc. Applegate, three. JUL 31 1945

Spending less than 24 hours at the Miami ATC hub, they go by rail to Camp Blanding, Fla. Next stop is a reception center nearer home where they will be separated from the service or given furloughs prior to reassignment.
