

Holton, George E.

Volunteer Ambulanciers

HOLTON

BARRES

GERHARDT

KELLEY

NOV 15 1943
The four young men, all from Bethlehem, pictured here are members of the famous American Field Service, organization of mercy made up of volunteer ambulance drivers and aides who follow the armies into battle and bring out the wounded, often at great personal risk. Top left is George Holton, section commander; top right, Oliver Barres, with him in Italy; lower left, James Gerhardt, "somewhere in Italy"; lower right, Byron R. Kelley, driving an ambulance for the Service in India.

Bethlehem Quartet Drives Ambulances

Volunteer Ambulanciers in American Field Service Winning Laurels Under Enemy Fire

With dispatches reporting the activities of the armed forces

Nov. 15, 1943

it
y,
ed
to d-st
a le,
en:
ral
nd
gh
min-he its nuner
to ut

3
2
D
D
I
9
3
10
11
10
10
8
10