

Kemper, George
A

FORMER BETHLEHEMITE RECEIVES PROMOTION

SEP 24 1942

Advancement of George A. Kemper to Lieutenantcy Announced.

Word has been received by George Sigley, 50 West North Street, that his grandson, Second Lieutenant George A. Kemper, has now taken up his assignment with the U. S. Army Anti-Aircraft Artillery at Fort Eustis, Va.

Lieut. Kemper, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Kemper, California, is a former resident of Bethlehem having been born here. He is a graduate of Escondido High School, California, and of the University of Southern California, Class of '39.

Having enlisted about seven months ago, he received his commission as second lieutenant on September 4.

Relatives in this city include Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Sigley, the lieutenant's uncle and aunt, with whom the grandfather, George Sigley, resides. The late Rev. M. E. Kemper, former pastor of the Laurel Street Moravian Church, this city, was the paternal grandfather of the army officer.
