

Hocker Jr., George

Advanced in Rank

LIEUT. GEORGE HOCKER JR.
JUL 21 1944
George Hocker Jr.,
Is Promoted to Full Lieutenant

Mrs. George Hocker Jr., has received word of the promotion of her husband, Lieut. (j. g.) Hocker Jr., USNR, to the rank of full lieutenant. Lieut. Hocker is now stationed at a Navy amphibious base in the British Isles, and has been overseas since December 1, 1943.

Lieut. Hocker entered the Naval Reserves in June, 1942 and received his indoctrination training at Fort Schuyler, N. Y. He received an ensign's commission when he entered the service and was advanced to lieutenant, junior grade in June, 1943. He was stationed in Washington, D. C., for about 18 months before going overseas.

Lieut. Hocker is the son of George Hocker of 1851 Paul Avenue, is married to the former Annette Stauffer, daughter of Mrs. Charles M. Stauffer of 926 Prospect Avenue.

July 21, 1944