

Musikfest '89

Bethlehem, PA
August 19-27, 1989

Welcome Back to Musikfest.

Six years of celebration. Six years of memories.

This summer, the tradition continues as the city of Bethlehem, Musikfest and First Valley Bank bring you more free performances than ever before. More of your favorite foods and activities. More moments to share with family and friends.

Official Sponsors Of Americaplatz and the Bach Choir.

Welcome

The Musikfest

It is happening now, it's that time of the year, when the carpet's rolled out for the Musikfest here.
A welcome to visitors from far and near,
to the Bethlehem Musikfest days.

Take a stroll down Main Street, linger awhile.
Relish the old Victorian style, with oncoming faces returning your smile,
sharing joy at the Musikfest days.

Relax, let go, the big bands are swinging.
There's music, there's dancing, there's people out singing.
And would you believe, it is just the beginning of the Bethlehem Musikfest days.

The charming Sun Inn, with its welcoming sign.
An historic enchantment, a place you can dine.
And right in its courtyard sip Liederplatz wine,
on the Bethlehem Musikfest days.

Go see the waterworks local creation.
The first piped water, pumped in the nation.
Then study your programme's publication,
for your next choice at Musikfest days.

Relax, let go, and be not inhibited.
Being yourself is never prohibited.
See the varieties being exhibited here at the Musikfest days.

Now you can listen to different groups singing.
From around the World, their songs they are bringing.
There are polkas, Beethoven, and highland flinging, and much more on Musikfest days.

Would you like a drink, try a tasty bite?
You can quench your thirst, whet your appetite.
It is cheerfully served for your delight,
on the wonderful Musikfest days.

Relax, let go, indulge in some shopping.
From store to store, you'll find yourself hopping.
And once you have started, there will be no stopping of fun at the Musikfest days.

The Moravian Church, the Moravian College, are fundamental to Bethlehem's knowledge.
They open their doors to people of all age,
on the Bethlehem Musikfest days.

Down in the big tent the canvas is flapping.
The dancing is joined by the singing and clapping.
And those not up dancing are busy toe-tapping,
at the Bethlehem Musikfest days.

Relax, let go, hear the Bach chorus.
Perfection in harmony, blossoms before us.
Their voices are blendingly, flowingly glorious,
at the classical Musikfest days.

At night, there's a light, shining bright on the hill, overlooking the valley, as it always will.
And the Bethlehem star will be twinkling there still on the nights of the Musikfest days.

As festivities end, it becomes quite clear, that the happy visitors, visiting here,
will be making their plans to return next year,
to the Bethlehem Musikfest days.

Relax, let go, there is no denying,
that you will have fun, even if you're not trying.
An experience both rich and satisfying.
A tribute to Musikfest days.

The Cover: A full-color, pictorial display of familiar images of the festival which showcases the diversity and captures the spirit of Musikfest. The trolley, the stein from the original poster, the Musikfest lyre, polished instruments, an assortment of festivalgoers and performers, a silhouette of historic Bethlehem and a brilliant fireworks display as a backdrop, all create a lively interpretation of this highly lauded and annual event. The poster was designed by Jane D. Ramsey, Art Director at Musselman Advertising, Inc. Musselman Advertising, Inc. has been the Official Design Sponsor of Musikfest since its inception in 1984, and is responsible for the creative image development of the festival each year. Visit Familienplatz and taste the candy you helped create!

Two years ago we asked visitors to Musikfest to vote for their favorite candy flavors, and the winner was bubble gum. Your help was the start of a total new product program that combines bubble gum with popular cherry to create all-new Cherri and Bubb, a mouth-watering sensation soon to be introduced in California.

Visit our booth and be among the first to taste the candy you helped create. Then take time to enjoy all the fun at Familienplatz, in an atmosphere that will generate memories for years to come.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

The Bethlehem Musikfest Association offers the sale of beer, wine and cooler as an accommodation to our patrons. Stroh Beer, White Mountain Cooler, and Clover Hill Wines are sold at Americaplatz, Festplatz, Liederplatz, and Volk-splatz. Please enjoy your drinks at these sites. You may not bring your own beverages to the festival. We ask that you do not carry alcoholic beverages outside the entertainment areas where these beverages are served. State law prohibits removal of alcoholic beverages from these areas, and you may be stopped. We remind our guests that the legal drinking age in Pennsylvania is 21.

Musikfest staff may request identification with photo from anyone purchasing alcoholic beverages. No minors will be served. We will withhold service from anyone lacking proof of age. The Bethlehem city police may also check IDs and will deal with those who behave irresponsibly.

DRINKING AND DRIVING DON'T MIX! We want you to arrive home safely so that you can return to enjoy next year's festival. If you or a friend who is driving has had too much to drink, locate the nearest information booth, and a cab will be called for you at your expense.

ARTISTS

Artists paint murals during the festival at Muralplatz, located at Main Street and Ohio Road, just south of Hotel Bethlehem. Ample room is available for you to sit, or stand and enjoy their creations. Refer to page 50 for information about Muralplatz and to page 101 for biographical information.

BANKS

Branches of several of our sponsor banks on or near the festival site are: First Valley Bank at One Bethlehem Plaza near Familienplatz; Greater Bethlehem Savings and Loan at 418 West Broad Street near Third Avenue; Keystone Savings Association at Ninth Avenue and West Broad Street; Lehigh Valley Bank at 52 West Broad Street near Kinderplatz; Meridian Bank at 45 West Broad Street inside the Bethlehem Plaza Mall; and Nazareth National Bank and Trust at 44 East Broad Street in the Broad Street Business Center.

AUTOMATED TELLER MACHINES that incorporate the M.A.C. system are located at the following bank branches: First Valley Bank (member Plus System) Meridian Bank branch at Tenth Avenue and Broad Street (member Plus System) Nazareth National Bank and Trust (member Cirrus System)

BUSES

SHUTTLE BUSES connect the remote parking lots to the Festival Site and are color coded yellow, blue and green, to match the corresponding shuttle bus stop. The round-trip Shuttle Bus Ticket costs $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12 years. Tickets may only be purchased at the parking lot. Patrons must give their ticket to the driver for the return trip to the parking lot. For information about the remote parking sites which are called Shuttleplatz!, see "Parking."

The SHUTTLE BUS STOPS are located in the Christmas City Parade Grounds as indicated by the symbol in the "Festival Map" in the center of this book. When taking a Shuttle back to your parking lot, check your Shuttle Bus Ticket and board the appropriately color coded Shuttle.

The TROLLEYS supply transportation around the Festival Site. Stops are conveniently located near all of the performance sites and museums. The Trolleys continuously travel around the Festival Site, but they will stop only at the locations designated by signs. See "Festival Map" in the center of this book, to locate the nearest Trolley Stop. Trolley transportation is free. This service is made possible by support from Alpo, Hill Financial Savings Association, Rudy's Car Wash, Union Pacific Corporation and Valley Federal Savings and Loan Association.

TOUR BUSES visiting Musikfest let off and pick up passengers at the D. Patrick M. Robinson Center, located inside Lehigh Valley Bank, on Guetter Street between Broad and North streets.

CONCERTS

Most of the concert performances at Musikfest are free, but a few require tickets and/or admission. They include:

- A Moravian Music Fest at Central Moravian Church — free, but ticketed — Saturday, August 19 and Sunday, August 20.
- Asa Packer Concert Series at Packer Chapel, Lehigh University — $5.00 — Saturday, August 19; Sunday, August 20; Friday, August 25; and Saturday, August 26.
- Chamber Music Series at Peter Hall, Moravian College Center for Music and Art — free, but ticketed — Monday, August 21 to Friday, August 25
- Candlelight Concert Series in the Ballroom of the Hotel Bethlehem — $5.00 — Sunday, August 20 to Saturday, August 26.
- Kunstplatz concerts at the Community Arts Pavilion — free, but some reserved seating at $3.00 — Saturday, August 19 to Saturday, August 27
- Vesper Concert Series at Central Moravian Church — free, no tickets required — Monday, August 21 to Friday, August 25

Tickets for all of the above concerts will be available exclusively at Leh's Department Stores in Allentown (215/434-5181), Bethlehem (215/867-4422), Quakertown (215/536-1500) and Whitehall (215/264-5161). Tickets for all Kunstplatz concerts will be sold as follows:
First weekend concerts-July 28, 29 & 30
All weekday concerts-July 31, August 1 & 2
Last weekend concerts-August 3, 4 & 5.

All remaining Kunstplatz tickets will be sold during the festival, at noon, at the Spring Street Welcome Booth, only on the day of the concert. They will not be available between August 5 and the day of the concert and no mail orders will be accepted.

Beginning August 6-12, A Moravian Music Fest, Asa Packer, Chamber and Candlelight Concert tickets will be sold at Leh's. They can also be purchased by mail order through the Musikfest Office, 556 Main Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018, beginning June 12. Ticket hours are 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Mail orders received after Friday, August 11, may be held at the Concert Box Office. Once the festival begins, all remaining tickets may be purchased at the Musikfest office or Concert Box Office, starting one hour before each concert. For further ticket information see "Tickets." See "THE SITES OF MUSIKFEST" on page 47 for further information about these concerts or the Schedule pages on 24-41 for starting times.

COOLERS

Leave your cooler at home. To maximize the safety of Musikfest visitors, the festival prohibits cans, bottles and coolers. Under no circumstances will coolers be permitted at Kunstplatz or at any other festival site at any time.

EMERGENCY SERVICE

In the event of any emergency, contact the nearest Musikfest Site Supervisor, the nearest police officer or locate a Musikfest information booth. The emergency number to call is 215/865-7171.

FESTIVAL RULES

Few rules exist at Musikfest, but the ones we have are there for good a reason — to ensure a safe and enjoyable festival for all attending. Please follow them!

- Help us keep the festival sites clean by using the garbage cans and ashtrays.

- Do not carry alcoholic beverages outside of the entertainment areas where these beverages are served. It is against state laws to do so, and you may be stopped.
- Bringing food or beverage to any Musikfest site is prohibited.
- For the safety of our patrons, glass containers and coolers are prohibited at all Musikfest sites.
- Do not bring animals to the festival, except guide dogs.
- Only Musikfest personnel are permitted on scaffold towers and stages.
- Parking in no parking zones will result in towing, ticketing or fines which will be enforced by Bethlehem Police Department. Please use the convenient off-site parking areas (Shuttleplatz!) and Shuttle Buses.
- For your safety, do not wade in the creek, canal or river.
- Skateboards and portable radios are prohibited.
- Defacing property within the Musikfest site may result in prosecution.
- To encourage responsible service and consumption of alcoholic beverages, no Musikfest pitchers will be sold, nor will pitchers from previous festivals be filled.
- DO NOT DRINK AND DRIVE. Musikfest observes the state regulations established by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. Musikfest staff will not serve patrons unless proper ID is presented.

FIRST AID

Four First Aid stations called "Healthplatz" are sponsored and staffed by Muhlenberg Hospital Center and St. Luke's Hospital.

- At Festplatz, Healthplatz is located on the grass between the bridge and Spring Street. It is staffed during festival hours by a physician and a nurse, and an ambulance is standing by.
- On the Broad Street Mall (Bethlehem Plaza Mall), Healthplatz is located between Familienplatz and Kinderplatz (between Guetter and New Streets).
- At Americaplatz, Healthplatz is on the portico of the Bethlehem Public Library facing Church Street.
- At Volksplatz, Healthplatz is located adjacent to the information ticket booth, off of the gravel access road, toward the Broad Street Bridge Arch.
- Free blood pressure testing is available at all four Healthplatz locations. First aid service at the festival site is free. If additional treatment is needed, the ambulance and/or hospital will charge for services.

FOOD AND DRINK

A world of food to sample and satisfy every taste is available at Musikfest. About 60 vendors provide food in locations throughout the festival site. Authorized Musikfest food and beverage stands are identified by a Musikfest Lyre Logo and accept Musikfest food and beverage tickets only. These vendors contribute a significant portion of their proceeds to help make our festival possible, and we strongly encourage your patronage. Coca-Cola products and Snyder's of Hanover snacks are available at outdoor sites. For a listing of beer and wine locations please refer to "Alcoholic Beverages." For more information on the wonderful variety of food served at Musikfest, see "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43. Please do not bring your own food or beverage to the festival.

HANDICAPPED ACCESS

Public parking with relatively easy access for the handicapped is available in the Walnut Street Parking Garage, which is located within the festival site. Reserved off-site festival parking is available only at the Lehigh Shopping Center. A free shuttle bus, provided by Good Shepherd, will transport a wheelchair individual and an assistant to the festival site. Once on site, this vehicle will serve as a trolley for the handicapped and will let off and pick up passengers at all designated trolley areas. For more information see "Parking." No reserved parking is available at any of the Musikfest sites for handicapped individuals and their vehicles.

The Musikfest sites that are wheelchair accessible are:

- Americaplatz — Church Street at New Street
- Familienplatz — Broad Street Mall at New Street
- Festplatz — Spring Street
- Kinderplatz — Broad Street Mall at Guetter Street.
- Kunstplatz — Moravian College Church Street Campus parking lot. Note that this is a private parking lot, and the general public may not park in it.
- Liederplatz — Walnut Street entrance, and Main Street entrance at the Sun Inn.
- Volksplatz — From Festplatz over the Stone Arch Bridge or from Union Boulevard onto Old York Road.

Few architectural barriers exist throughout the Musikfest site, but there is a steep hill going down Main Street from the corner of Church Street to Festplatz and Kunstplatz. Volksplatz and Kunstplatz are located on mostly grassy sites.

Free public restrooms which are handicapped equipped can be found at the following locations: in the Bethlehem Public Library (11 W. Church Street, 2nd floor, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, closed weekends); in City Hall (10 E. Church Street, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday to Friday); and in the Walnut Street Parking Garage. At Americaplatz, Familienplatz, Festplatz, Kunstplatz and Volksplatz, portilets have been modified to accommodate the needs of the handicapped. A brief guide to access around Musikfest for the handicapped is available through the Musikfest office.

For shuttle bus information that is wheelchair accessible, see "Buses."

HOTELS, MOTELS AND BED & BREAKFASTS

Official hotels of Musikfest '89 are the Allentown Hilton, Ninth and Hamilton Streets in Allentown (telephone 215/433-2221); The Bethlehem Inn, 476 North New Street (telephone 215/867-4985) the Comfort Inn - Allentown, 40 Pennsylvania Drive (telephone 215/391-1500); the George Washington Lodge, 1350 MacArthur Road (south of Route 22) in Whitehall (telephone 215/433-0131); the Holiday Inn Bethlehem, Route 512 north of Route 22 (telephone 215/866-5800); the Hotel Bethlehem, 437 Main Street (telephone 215/867-3711); and the Radisson Hotel Americus Centre, corner Sixth and Hamilton Streets in Allentown (telephone 215/434-6101). For information on other Lehigh Valley area hotels and motels, call the Lehigh Valley Convention and Visitors Bureau at 215/266-0560.

INFORMATION

Festival information booths are located at Americaplatz, Familienplatz, Festplatz, Kunstplatz, Liederplatz, Main Street Musikfest and Volksplatz. Most information booths sell Musikfest souvenirs, food and beverage tickets, and Souvenir Program Books.

LICENSEES

Area merchants participating with the Bethlehem Musikfest Association under a licensing agreement will carry an additional line of Musikfest Souvenirs. These licensees are identified by their display of a window decal consisting of the Musikfest script and the Lyre Logo. Sales from licensed merchandise benefits Musikfest. A detailed description of the licensees and their items follows:

- Lehigh Department Stores of Bethlehem, Allentown, Whitehall and Quakertown will sell golf shirts, athletic shorts, baseball caps, and adult and children's t-shirts. All wearables are produced by our official clothing manufacturer, Windjammer, Inc. of Bangor, PA.

A Store as Exciting as Musikfest!

A VISIT TO THE MORAVIAN BOOK SHOP in Historic Bethlehem is always something special. Here, you'll find distinctive merchandise, gift items, greeting cards, a cook shop, a gourmet deli and of course, books! Enjoy the magic of Musikfest...and discover the many worlds of the Moravian Book Shop.

- C. Leslie Smith stores of Bethlehem and Allentown will sell a variety of silver and 14k gold jewelry, a limited edition art tile handcrafted by Starbuck & Gouldner, windsocks and ceramic coffee mugs.
- The Framin' Place & Gallery, 1009 Union Boulevard, Allentown, and the Bethlehem Musikfest Association have an exclusive agreement by which patrons can purchase and order framed Musikfest '89 Posters and Souvenir Program Book covers. Also available are framed items from previous festivals.
- The official Musikfest postcards, produced by Christmas City Cards of Bethlehem, are available again this year. New festival views have been added to the selection. The cards can be mailed and canceled with the special Musikfest commemorative postmark which can be obtained from the Post Office Booth at Spring Street. They are available at the booth and at a variety of downtown Bethlehem merchants.
- The Bag Lady of Bethlehem, 544 Main Street, will sell hand-made compact mirrors with leaded glass trim complete with leather case; a leather belt pouch with a burned-in Musikfest logo; and silk and silk twill scarves, each hand painted and offered in a limited quantity with the Musikfest lyre logo, artist's signature, and edition number.
- Into the Lost and Found, 89 Walnut Street, Bethlehem, will sell an official Musikfest Christmas ornament. The glass ornament will be imprinted with the Musikfest lyre logo and the year. Each ornament is individually boxed.

LOGO

Look for the official Musikfest Lyre Logo! This indicates locations where Musikfest food and beverage tickets are accepted, and identifies our official licensees. Vendors displaying this sign are authorized by Musikfest and contribute proceeds to assist the festival. We strongly encourage your patronage.

LOST AND FOUND

Found items should be taken to the nearest information booth. Wallets, keys, and other valuables may be claimed from the Musikfest Office at 556 Main Street. Musikfest cannot be responsible for lost items. Items will only be held for 30 days after the close of the festival.

LOST PEOPLE/CHILDREN

If you become separated from your companions while visiting Musikfest, we suggest that you go to the nearest information booth to meet your party. We cannot make announcements from the stage except in emergency situations. LOST CHILDREN should be taken to the nearest information booth. Their names and descriptions will be taken and the information circulated throughout the festival. The children will stay at the information booth until their parents can be found.

MAPS AND "MARTIANS"

If you are new to Bethlehem and are trying to locate your position on the Musikfest site, we refer you to the "Festival Site" map in the center of this book. The map shows locations of the Musikfest sites, telephones, parking, information, tickets and souvenirs, Shuttle Bus and Trolley stops, the Souvenir Store, museums and galleries on the festival site, first aid, and "Portoplatz."

"Martians" are our term for the nine-foot yellow directional signs you will see around the festival site. These signs will identify your current location and direct you to other sites at Musikfest.

MUSEUMS

PARKING (SHUTTLEPLATZ)

Musikfest visitors driving to the festival have a number of parking lots from which to choose. Patrons using Route 22 (I-78) or Route 309 should follow the signs to the appropriate Musikfest parking from Route 378. Avoid the heavy traffic congestion in downtown Bethlehem during Musikfest! We strongly urge visitors to use one of the three off-site parking lots which are color coded and called Shuttleplatz!:

From one
quality performer
to another.

Mack Trucks, Inc.
SALUTES

Musikfest '89

- 1.) The Lehigh Shopping Center Lot, at Union Boulevard and Club Avenue in West Bethlehem. A Good Shepherd wheelchair accessible bus will pick up and drop off handicapped visitors, for free, at this lot only. (YELLOW)
- 2.) The Minsi Trail Bridge Lot, at the corner of Stefko Boulevard and East Market Street. (BLUE)
- 3.) Martin Tower, at Eighth and Eaton Avenues, off of Route 378. (GREEN)

Parking at these Musikfest lots is free. A shuttle bus will operate to transport patrons to and from the festival site. Round-trip ticket prices are $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12. There is no charge for the handicapped bus service. Tickets are available for purchase ONLY at the parking lot areas. Patrons must give their ticket to the driver for the return trip to the parking lot. Limited parking is available at City of Bethlehem lots for a nominal charge. For additional information call the City of Bethlehem Bureau of Parking at 215/865-7035.

PITCHERS

In an effort to promote responsible service and consumption of alcoholic beverages, no pitchers will be sold or filled at Musikfest '89. A new clear 22-ounce souvenir plastic mug, incorporating the festival's '89 design and logo, will be available for visitors who desire larger quantities of beverage. Each person can purchase up to a limit of four mugs of beer or wine.

POLICE

Bethlehem Police will assist festival patrons and will patrol during Musikfest to deal with emergencies. In an emergency, locate the nearest uniformed officer. Bethlehem police can be reached at the emergency number 215/865-7171.

POST OFFICE BOOTH

As in the past, a temporary facility of the United States Post Office will be at the entrance of Festplatz, to provide postal service to the festival patron and volunteers. Services offered include the sale of postage stamps, stamp collecting kits, Musikfest licensed postcards and Christmas City cachet envelopes. All mail will be stamped with the special Musikfest commemorative postmark. The post office will open for service daily from 1:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

RAIN

Musikfest performances continue rain or shine, but not during electrical storms. Performing schedules may be adjusted in case of rain.

REST ROOMS

Portable toilets (Portoplatz) are located at or near all outdoor festival sites. Free public restrooms can also be found at the following locations: in the Bethlehem Public Library (11 W. Church Street, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, closed weekends); and in City Hall (10 E. Church Street, Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.). For information about handicapped restrooms see "Handicapped Access."

SOUVENIR STORE

A Souvenir Store which will sell Musikfest '89 items and memorabilia will be located within the festival site. Look for directional signs to the store.

SOUVENIRS

Musikfest '89 stoneware and plastic mugs, sweatshirts, visors, tote bags, posters, Souvenir Program Books, rain ponchos, and adult and children's T-shirts are available at all Souvenir booths and our Souvenir Store located within the festival site.

Special, limited edition steins, made in West Germany; and limited edition prints—one done by Will Behler and the other by Donna Haney—are available at the Souvenir store, or through the Musikfest office at 556 Main Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018.

TELEPHONES

Outdoor public telephones are located at: 53 E. Broad Street east of New Street; 525 N. New Street; and on Spring Street near Festplatz. Indoor telephones are at the Bethlehem Public Library (11 W. Church Street, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Monday to Friday, closed weekends); City Hall (10 E. Church Street, Monday to Friday 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.); the lobby of the Hotel Bethlehem (437 Main Street); the Marketplace near Familienplatz; in the Luckenbach Mill near Volksplatz; and the lobby of Foy Concert Hall in the Moravian College Center for Music and Art.

Local Calls — Cellular One of the Lehigh Valley will offer visitors a free call to locations within the Lehigh Valley. This offer is limited to one call per person. The bank of Cellular One mobile phones will be located on the Broad Street pedestrian mall.

Long Distance — AT&T International will offer visitors a free two minute long distance telephone call to anywhere outside the United States. This offer is limited to one call per person. The bank of AT&T long distance phones will be located at the entrance to Volksplatz. Bring the phone numbers of your family or friends who are abroad.

TICKETS

FOOD AND BEVERAGE TICKETS: Musikfest food and beverage tickets can be purchased at any information booth and used at any authorized Musikfest food or beverage stand. These tickets will not be refunded. Musikfest food and beverage stands accept tickets only— they do not accept cash. Look for the Musikfest Lyre Logo identifying authorized Musikfest food vendors. Their proceeds help support the festival.

CONCERT TICKETS

See "Concerts."

KUNSTPLATZ RESERVED SEATING TICKETS: Admission to all Kunstplatz concerts is free. A limited reserved seating area is on the east side of the Kunstplatz stage. Admission to this seating area is $3.00, by ticket only. See "Concerts" for specific information.

SHUTTLE BUS TICKETS See "Buses"

TROLLEYS See "Buses"

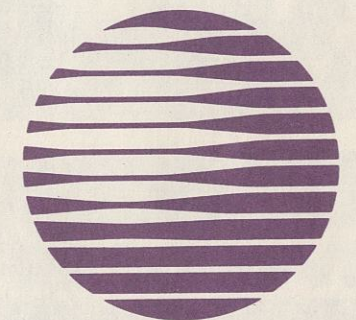

VOLUNTEERS

The Musikfest staff is comprised of nearly 1,700 volunteers who offer their services to Musikfest so that you can enjoy the festival. If you have any questions, want directions, or need help, ask a member of our staff. They are identified by light purple or gray staff shirts imprinted with the Musikfest logo. They are there to help.

WELCOME BOOTH

The Welcome Booth is a special information booth located on Spring Street in front of the Festplatz Tent. Most visitors to Musikfest will find this booth first. It is right near the Shuttle Bus Stop for the off-site parking lots. The Welcome Booth sells food and beverage tickets and souvenirs. Volunteer hosts at the Welcome Booth will have information about other Lehigh Valley attractions. If you're looking for information about the Musikfest '90 Passion Play Tour to Europe, visit the booth at Volksplatz. The Welcome Booth also sells tickets to the reserved seating section at Kunstplatz, see "Tickets." The Welcome Booth will be open from 11:30 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. daily.

Breads for the '90's.

Since 1908, Maier's has been baking wholesome breads and rolls that have become a tasty family tradition throughout the Lehigh Valley area. Our bakery business has been built on basic values—but we stay right in step with the evolving knowledge about, and your concern with, nutrition. For instance, three of our breads—Molenberg, Oatmeal and Country Oat Bran—represent the finest in whole grain products. At Maier's Bakery we offer a tradition of quality—with an eye to the future.

The Sites of Musikfest

A number of outdoor performance sites, all within walking distance of each other, offer Musikfest visitors a smorgasbord of food and music for their enjoyment. The naming of these sites, "platz," and the unique spelling of the festival itself, builds upon Bethlehem's rich Moravian foundation. This Germanic influence is apparent throughout the city's architecture on Main and Church Streets and within the 18th Century Industrial Area. The community's pride towards their city is also reflected by their caring spirit and commitment towards Bethlehem and Musikfest. At each platz, the foods, music and abundant activities represent themes which are all explained below. A series of free and admission indoor concerts offer another venue at Musikfest. The styles heard here range from sacred to classical to instrumental music by local, regional and international performers. We encourage you to visit all Musikfest sites so that you can fully experience our festival and the beautiful City of Bethlehem.

AMERICAPLATZ
America Place

Since its addition in 1985, First Valley Bank has been the sponsor of the activities and entertainment at the "All American" site, Americaplatz. Sit and listen to the great sounds of bluegrass, jazz and big band music while you relish a dish of Chesapeake Bay crabcakes, fruit salad or other regional American dishes. Americaplatz is located on the beautiful plaza at Bethlehem's City Center, at Church and New Streets (between City Hall and the Bethlehem Area Public Library). A breathtaking view of South Mountain accentuates the site and provides you with a relaxing fun-packed day. For a menu of the spectacular selections available here, see "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43. For a timetable and selection of performances, see the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24. Americaplatz is open noon to 11 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays, and 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. on weekdays.

ASA PACKER CONCERT SERIES

We've taken some of the best classical performing groups in the Lehigh Valley and scheduled them as part this new indoor series to be held at Packer Chapel, Lehigh University. The underwriters of this series are Air Products & Chemicals, Inc., The Globe Times and Lehigh University. Performances are sponsored individually and include Saturday, August 19, the Lehigh Valley Chamber Orchestra (sponsored by Rouse & Associates, Norwood Industrial Construction Company, Inc., and F. Daniel Cathers & Associates, Inc.); Sunday, August 20, Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra (sponsored by Chrysler First Inc. and Edwards Business Machines Inc.); Friday, August 25, Musikfest Chorus (sponsored by Lutron Electronics and Toll Brothers, Inc.); and Saturday, August 26, The Bach Choir of Bethlehem (sponsored by First Valley Bank). Concerts begin at 8 p.m. Advance purchase of tickets is suggested. For ticket information, see "Concerts" in the "WHERE TO FIND" section on page 15. For more information about the performers and their program, see "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '89" beginning on page 59. Please note that there is no shuttle service between the festival and Packer Chapel. Free parking is available at the University.

BLUMENPLATZ Flower Place

Music may be the main attraction at Musikfest, but Blumenplatz offers visitors a quiet escape to admire a gorgeous landscape of original floral sculptures. Hickory Grove Greenhouses Inc., presents this cornucopia of flowers in an 81 foot by 23 foot garden. Blumenplatz is located directly behind the Bethlehem Area Public Library – between Americaplatz and the Japanese Serenity Garden. The garden, containing a tea-house and a garden pool, is located west of the Bethlehem Area Public Library. It was built and presented to the City of Bethlehem in 1971 by Mr. Sakon, a prominent Japanese landscaper. The serenity garden symbolizes the friendship established between Bethlehem and its Sister City, Tondabayashi, Japan.

CANDLELIGHT CONCERTS

The Candlelight series offers seven different concerts showcasing classical, instrumental and jazz music. To be held in the historic Hotel Bethlehem, these concerts will begin on Sunday, August 20, and continue nightly through Saturday, August 26. Weichert Realtors invites you to come inside, cool off and enjoy this concert program which has been a part of Musikfest since 1984. The Hotel Bethlehem is located at 437 Main Street. Performances begin each evening at 8 p.m. sharp. Tickets are $5.00. See the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information, the "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '89", beginning on page 59 for biographical information, and "Concerts" in the "WHERE TO FIND" section on page 15 for details on tickets. Candlelight Concerts are also supported in part by a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts.

CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES

The request for more chamber music has been answered! Introducing the Chamber Music Series, to be held in Peter Hall, at Moravian College's Center for Music and Art on Church Street. Byers' Choice Ltd. presents this intimate indoor series which will feature music for piano four-hand, harpsichord and classical guitar. Concerts will be held each weekday evening during Musikfest. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information, "Concerts" in the "WHERE TO FIND" section on page 15 for details on tickets, and the "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '89" on page 59 for biographical information.

FAMILIENPLATZ Family Place

Familienplatz offers you the opportunity to enjoy valuable moments with a friend, your spouse, or child. At its location at the eastern end of the Broad Street pedestrian mall, Familienplatz compliments Kinderplatz, the site with activities specifically for children. Just Born, Inc., the makers of fine confectioneries, invites you to sit and listen to ethnic or American music, participate with your child in various workshops, sample their company's products, guess the number of jellybeans in a container, and meet the characters on the company's newly designed products. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information. Familienplatz hours are noon to 10 p.m. daily. A variety of foods are also available for the whole family to enjoy. See "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43.

JUST BORN®

FESTPLATZ Festival Place

How does listening to your favorite polka band under a large red and white tent sound? What about grabbing a partner and doing the Chicken Dance? Maybe even just sitting at a table and relishing a piece of German chocolate cake, barbecued ribs or a bratwurst platter? You can do that and more at Festplatz, the festival place which is sponsored by Meridian Bancorp. Here, north of Spring Street, you'll find our guest band from the town of Philippsburg, West Germany, Musikverein Feuerwehrkapelle Huttenheim along with your favorite Pennsylvania polka bands. Tables and chairs accommodate guests. For a complete Festplatz menu, see "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43. For performance information see "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 and "PERFORMERS OF MUSIKFEST '89" beginning on page 59 for biographical information. Festplatz is open from noon to 11 p.m. daily.

HEALTHPLATZ

Four First Aid stations called "Healthplatz" are sponsored and staffed by Muhlenberg Hospital Center and St. Luke's Hospital.

- At Festplatz, Healthplatz is located on the grass between the bridge and Spring Street. It is staffed during festival hours by a physician and a nurse, and an ambulance is standing by.
- On the Broad Street Mall (Bethlehem Plaza Mall), Healthplatz is located between Familienplatz and Kinderplatz.
- At Americaplatz, Healthplatz is on the portico of the Bethlehem Area Public Library facing Church Street.
- At Volksplatz, Healthplatz is located adjacent to the information ticket booth, off of the gravel access road, toward the Broad Street Bridge Arch.

Free blood pressure testing is available at all four Healthplatz locations. First aid service at the festival site is free. If additional treatment is needed, the ambulance and/or hospital may charge for services.

KINDERPLATZ Children's Plaza

Making an original souvenir and drawing on the sidewalk are some of the activities offered to children at Kinderplatz. Binney & Smith Inc., the makers of Crayola products, provides the art materials for your children to use as they make colorful mementos of Musikfest. Kinderplatz is located at the western end of the Broad Street Mall near Guetter Street and is complimented by Familienplatz. New this year, Binney & Smith will construct a creativity center where children can receive free individualized instruction on craft activities. Kinderplatz is open daily from noon to 8 p.m. Parents take note: Kinderplatz is for the whole family to enjoy; please do not leave your child unattended.

KUNSTPLATZ Art Place

For Musikfest '89, Kunstplatz offers free performances by the Lettermen, the Association, Livingston Taylor and the Clancy Brothers, to name a few. In the beautiful setting along the Monocacy Creek and behind Moravian College's Church Street Campus (at the South end of Main Street), is Bethlehem's Community Arts Pavilion. The pavilion was donated by Bethlehem Steel Corporation to the City of Bethlehem in 1980 to commemorate the company's 75th anniversary. It symbolizes Bethlehem Steel's long-standing tradition of commitment to the Bethlehem community. This open-air performing arts facility is a 3,000-square-foot, steel-framed structure with enough space for a 100-member orchestra. The pavilion has become the centerpiece of Musikfest as the site where all feature performances are held. See the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information. Visitors can enter Kunstplatz from the corner of Main and Spring streets across from Festplatz, or from Lehigh Street west of the Fahy Bridge. Guests can bring folding chairs, but Musikfest does have a limited reserved seating area immediately in front of the stage to accommodate our guests. Admission to the area is $3.00 per person. For ticket information see "Concerts" in the WHERE TO FIND section beginning on page 15.

No reserved blanket area will be allocated at Kunstplatz, but they are permitted. Blankets must be removed after each concert. A variety of foods and snacks are available for your enjoyment. See "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43.

Bethlehem

Behind the 1758 Sun Inn, is a gorgeous brick-paved courtyard which Musikfest transforms into an outdoor cabaret. The site is called Liederplatz. Its meaning is song place, and at Musikfest the songs presented range from barbershop quartets to bluegrass to folk to swing. Its sponsor, RE/MAX Realtors of Southeastern Pennsylvania and Delaware, invite you to sit at an umbrella or picnic table, relax, and enjoy the music. Site hours are noon to 11 p.m. daily. A variety of delicious foods and beverages are available nearby. See "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43 for a menu selection the "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on 24 for performance information.

MAIN STREET MUSIKFEST

The Bethlehem Musikfest Association in cooperation with the downtown Bethlehem merchants and with support from Orr's Department Store and the Morning Call, are proud to present to you Main Street Musikfest! A new entertainment site, which offers visitors two performance stages to either dance to polka music, or laugh with delight at the antics of an amazing street performer. Main Street Musikfest creates a natural bridge between the eastern end of the festival (Familienplatz), and the western end (Festplatz and Volksplatz). It's new for you to enjoy the entertainment or browse in the quaint little shops.

MURALPLATZ

Stationed beside the 1749 Moravian Pottery Wall at Main Street and Ohio Road, Muralplatz is an area where you can view artists creating original paintings on 4' X 8' panels. Eight different artists will be featured throughout the festival's duration, one of which will be highlighted daily. Biographies of Musikfest '89 artists can be found in the "MURALPLATZ ARTISTS" section on page 101. For a listing of whom is featured daily, see "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24. Valley Graphic Services, Inc., sponsor of Muralplatz, invites you to watch the wonderful process of gifted artists creating beauty for the eye, as the musicians at Musikfest are creating beauty for the ear. Art materials are supplied by Binney & Smith Inc.

Valley Graphic Services, Inc.

STREET PERFORMERS

Surprises are wonderful, especially if they make you laugh with delight. At Musikfest, our street performers specialize in making our visitors have a good time. In the best tradition of city festivals everywhere, Musikfest presents street performers who appear at different areas throughout the festival, from noon to 10 p.m. weekends and 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays. Burron Medical Inc., sponsors the street performances which include musicians, clowns, jugglers, street theatre, comedians, and magicians. They will pop up from place to place and time to time — so keep your eyes open for an amusing surprise! See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

It was an experiment last year that succeeded, and Musikfest is proud to again present regional artists performing with acoustic instruments under the lovely shade trees at Moravian College's Church Street Campus (behind Foy Concert Hall). Shows will be from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. weekdays. Take an afternoon break and listen to original compositions and traditional folk songs.

VESPER CONCERTS

Musikfest honors Bethlehem's religious origin and traditions by presenting five concerts of sacred music from Monday, August 21 to Friday, August 25 in Central Moravian Church at Main and Church Streets. The concerts begin at 6 p.m. and are sponsored by the Moravian Book Shop and C. Leslie Smith. Admission is free. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for performance information.

A MORAVIAN MUSIC FEST

These special free, but ticketed concerts by the Moravian College Singers will feature traditional songs of Bethlehem's Moravian settlers. The choir consists of current members of the Moravian College Choir, its alumni and members of the Central Moravian Church. The college, known for its music and art, was founded in 1742, making it the sixth oldest college in the country. This presentation is made possible through the generosity of the Estelle Borhek Johnston Memorial Fund. The concert will be held at Central Moravian Church, Main and West Church Streets, on Saturday, August 19 and Sunday, August 20 at 8 p.m.

VOLKSPLATZ

Peoples Place

Delectable international foods and intriguing international music — only at Volksplatz can you relish these two together. Under a large tent, festival visitors can sit and listen to Middle Eastern, Mexican, Caribbean, and Celtic music while diving into a plateful of Chinese, English, Greek or Filipino dishes. Musikfest continues its tradition of showcasing the diverse ethnic cultures in this community. At this location for the second year — Johnston Park, near the Luckenbach Mill — Lehigh Valley Bank invites you to vicariously experience the world through music. See "DAILY SCHEDULES" beginning on page 24 for a detailed daily performance listing and "FOODS OF THE FESTIVAL" on page 43 for the tempting treats at Volksplatz. The site is open from noon to 11 p.m. daily.

When it comes to health care...
We know the score!

St. Luke's Hospital and Muhlenberg Hospital Center have again joined together to provide free emergency health care services during Musikfest.

All Healthplatz sites provide free first aid, free blood pressure screenings plus a direct line to emergency facilities at both hospitals. The four convenient locations are:

A full-service emergency health care facility staffed by a St. Luke's physician, nurses from both Muhlenberg and
St. Luke's, and a health care volunteer.
Ambulance service on site.

KINDERPLATZ

For feeding and changing times, a quiet place for mothers with babies, free diapers and formula as well as first aid for all Musikfesters. Staffed by nurses from the Parent-Child Health Care Center at St. Luke's Hospital.

AMERICAPLATZ

VOLKSPLATZ

Both locations staffed by nurses from Muhlenberg and St. Luke's as well as a health care volunteer.

We're pleased to offer free emergency health care services to Musikfesters—in just the right doses!

Celebrate a summertime classic with a new look from an old friend.

As the world's largest family-owned and operated brewery and the third-largest brewery in the nation, The Stroh Brewery Company knows the score when it comes to creating a classic.

Our premium, fire-brewed beer, Stroh's, has been a crowd-pleaser since 1775. And since 1984, we've been proud to be a principal sponsor of another summertime classic—Musikfest.

This year we've changed our packaging to reflect even more of the 213 years of Stroh family heritage and brewing tradition. Together, Stroh's and Musikfest will be celebrating great moments with good friends and family. That's what the Stroh tradition is all about.

Performers of Musikfest '89

Selecting the performers to appear at Musikfest is a demanding and rewarding task. The Bethlehem Musikfest Association's programming committee reviews potential performers and determines appropriate themes for the festival sites and concerts. Musikfest receives suggestions, requests, and recommendations from many enthusiastic festival fans.

Artists will present just about every kind of music, and the performers vary as much as their music. There are three-year-old violinists, and singers well into their seventies. We have internationally known talent and performers taking their first bows on stage. Some artists grew up in faraway places — from Australia and Taiwan to Ireland and Germany. But most of our performers live, work, sing, and play in the Lehigh Valley region. Roughly 60 percent are local, living within a 50-mile radius of the Musikfest office. About 15 percent are regional, living 50 to 75 miles away from Bethlehem. The remainder are from across the state, the country, and the world. Biographical sketches follow, based on the performers' standard promotional material and brief questionnaires that were filled out specifically for this section. After each description, you will see one or more boldface dates which refer to the group's scheduled performance(s).

Last year we introduced a quiet place to enjoy acoustic performers from the region, and it was so popular that we are continuing our programming there. It is located behind Foy Concert Hall, near Kunstplatz, on the Moravian College Church Street campus.

MEET THE ARTIST

This year, you will have a chance to enjoy a performance and then ask the performers questions about their presentations. The performances are noted in the schedule. The special artists are Pennsylvania natives. The performers are:

- August 19 — Old World Folk Band from Harrisburg
- August 21 — David Amram, originally from Bucks County
- August 24 — Leon Bates from Philadelphia
- August 25 — Gary Steigerwalt, originally from the Lehigh Valley, and his wife, Dana Muller

We hope that you will take advantage of the opportunity to get to know a few of our state's excellent musicians and MEET THE ARTISTS!

The AIR FORCE BAND OF THE EAST'S Protocol Combo will perform jazz at Familienplatz. The Protocol Combo appears through the courtesy of Major General Donald A. Logeais, Commander, 21st Air Force Military Airlift Command at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey, and your local Air Force recruiter. Aug. 25

Born in Brazil, Flora Purim and Airo Moreira perform Latin-jazz-rock fusion at Musikfest as AIRTO and FLORA PURIM BAND. Moreira is a percussionist who came to the United States in 1968. He initially came to national prominence touring with Miles Davis. He has consistently won first place in the Percussion category of International Jazz Polls of Down Beat Magazine. He has toured with Paul Simon, Freddie Hubbard, Chicago, Carlos Santana, and Herbie Hancock. Purim is a six octave range vocalist. Her musical influences range from Brazilian street music to African rhythms to Billie Holliday. She has five times been awarded best jazz singer by Down Beat, Billboard, Record World, and Rolling Stone. Purim and Airo recorded Light as a Feather with Chick Corea. The duo formed a permanent group in 1986 and have received Grammy nominations for their first two albums Humble People and The Magicians. They have a third album, The Sun Is Out, on Concord Records. Aug. 21

ALLEGRA's three-part vocal harmony and acoustic instrumentation (hammered dulcimer, tenor banjo, classical guitar, bones and mandolin) have entertained listeners in the United States and Europe since 1978. This New Orleans string band presents ragtime-style traditional jazz and original material which perfectly suits their New Orleans heritage. The group has produced three recordings, performed in Europe twice, and given concerts in twenty states. In 1984, they performed at the Louisiana World's Fair; in 1986, they won first place at the All American Ragtime Festival; and in 1988, they were awarded a grant by the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Foundation. Members are Anna Fessenden, Jack Werner, and Rick Mulcahy. Aug. 19, 20

Founded in 1828, THE ALLENTOWN BAND is America's oldest civilian concert band. One of the most active and well-known musical organizations in the Lehigh Valley, the band's personnel represent a cross section of the community. The band has been referred to as having the "Sousa Sound", and in the early part of this century, no less than 15 members of the Allentown Band played with the Sousa Band. They are currently conducted by Ronald H. Demkee. Aug. 19

polka to popular melodies. Under the directorship of Vincent Pettinelli, the 20 year old band has won numerous trophies and prizes. Each year it sponsors an Italian-American Day at Meuser Park in Easton and plays at the Clinton Historical Museum and the Lafayette Alumni Day Parade. Aug. 19

The DAVID AMRAM JAZZ QUARTET returns to Musikfest for a fourth year of well loved performances. Amram recently completed an album, Live At Musikfest, which he recorded as Musikfest's Artist-in-Residence in 1987 and 1988. Amram was the first composer-in-residence with New York Philharmonic, played with Dizzy Gillespie, performed with Willie Nelson at FarmAid, and composed and conducted music for The Manchurian Candidate and Splendor in The Grass. MEET THE ARTIST! Aug. 21

ANIME' is Robin Kani, flute; Rebecca Brown, violin; and Frances Rowell, cello. They are well known in the Lehigh Valley area as soloists and chamber musicians. Anime' is an annual guest artist for the Stroudsburg People's Concert Series. Future plans include commissioning a work for the ensemble and regional touring. Aug. 23

JAY ANSILL composes and plays Celtic harp and acoustic guitar. He has performed and recorded some of his compositions with violinist Darol Anger, produced a concert with Robin Williamson, toured with MacDermott's Handy, and acted as sideman and accompanist to Robin and Linda Williams and Odetta. Ansill has an album entitled Origami on the Flying Fish label which should be released this fall. Aug. 24

ASIAN-AMERICAN ARTS CENTER presents "Chinese Performing Arts", programs of Chinese arts with narration and explanation. The presentations will feature Fong Kuang-Yu, an actress, dancer, and singer from Taipei, Taiwan. Fong trained at the Peking Opera and has come to the United States to introduce an understanding of Chinese opera to American audiences, an endeavor that has her touring extensively. Aug. 22

THE ASSOCIATION and their incredible harmonies have managed to sustain and gain fans from the 1960s to the 1980s. The group has sold over 30 million records, earning six gold discs and one platinum. Number one hits like "Never My Love", "Windy", and "Cherish" have achieved "standard" status, receiving almost as much airplay today as they ever have. The group formed in 1965 and opened the Monterey Pop Festival in 1967. They received seven Grammy nominations. Group members are Jules Gary Alexander, Larry Ramos, Russ Giguere, Bruce Pictor, Paul Holland, Donni Gougeon, and Del Ramos. Aug. 27

The renowned BACH CHOIR OF BETHLEHEM, conducted since 1983 by Greg Funfgeld, will be a part of the Asa Packer Series to be held at Lehigh University. The Choir will perform excerpts from two of Johann Sebastian Bach's most popular cantatas as well as two works from the Choir's most recent recording, Wachet auf! In January, the Choir recorded Cantata 140, "Wake, arise, the voices call us!" on the Dorian label. The Choir and Orchestra will be joined by Canadian bass Daniel Lichti in a performance of another work from their recent recording, Cantata 56, "I will the cross-staff gladly carry." Aug. 26

LES BAER SEXTET performs swing and calls itself the "Li'l Band with the Big Band Sound". The group originated in the Bethlehem area and was organized in 1955. They have entertained on four consecutive cruises through the Caribbean with as many as 460 Lehigh Valley tourists on board. The group returns for the fourth year. Aug. 20

BALALAIKA RUSSE plays the balalaikas and domras, traditional Russian folk instruments with three strings each. The instruments are plucked and have a range from soprano through contra bass. In 1985, the group was flown to Europe to play a

Bates began his formal study of music at the age of six on both piano and violin. The late Irene Beck formulated his early training at the Settlement Music School, and his advanced study was under renowned pianist Natalie Hinderas at Temple University. MEET THE ARTIST! Aug. 24

JOHN FRANCIS BAUER manages his own record company, JFB Records, and has five recordings to his credit. While stationed with the United States Air Force in Germany during the late 1960s, Bauer was chosen tenor soloist for both the Protestant and Catholic Choirs. In 1984, he recorded "Be Not Afraid", which has become the mainstay of his music ministry. Aug. 20

MICHÈLE BAUTIER is a solo jazz performer who started singing in the Poconos, then in New Jersey, and finally received recognition in New York City. She has been singing professionally for about 11 years and has performed twice at Musikfest. Bautier won the leading role in "Stardust" at her first Broadway audition; she was nominated for awards by both the Outer Critics' Circle and the New York Drama Desk for her performance. Her most memorable performing experience was at Musikfest '88. Aug. 26

BEETHOVEN CHORUSES perform for the fourth time at Musikfest. The men's chorus (Maennerchor) was founded in 1891; the women's chorus (Damenchor) started in 1922. The choruses have won many awards throughout the years. The combined choruses, directed by Donald Winzer, have performed in many secular and religious concerts throughout the Lehigh Valley as well as at their present home at the Beethoven Waldheim in Leithsville, Pa. Aug. 26

A typical Middle Eastern band is comprised of three instruments and a vocalist. The instruments include an oud, which is a guitar-like instrument, the nai, which is equivalent to the flute, and the durbakke, a drum similar to the bongo. The BEIRUT BAND, created in 1973, has performed in the Middle East and several places in the United States. Members are Jamil, Amin, Samir, Sami, and Jade. Aug. 21

BELTANE performs a fresh musical approach combining traditional Celtic music with progressive classical and jazz overtones. The group is comprised of Martin Daly, lead vocals, guitar and mandolin; Bob Morffi, mandolin, bouzouki, fiddle and guitar; Susan Murphy, synthesizers, piano, tin whistle and oboe; and Danny Littwin, bass, guitar and mandolin. The highlight of their 1988 season was a performance at Lincoln Center in New York. Aug. 19

The BETHLEHEM ELKS STAGEBAND, BPOE #91, was formed in 1946 by the late Earl Kunsman. The band consists of 17 members, including a female vocalist. They perform traditional American, big band and contemporary jazz musical numbers. They last appeared at Musikfest in 1985. Aug. 20

Beethoven Choruses

THE BETHLEHEM TOWNE CREYERS perform the classical folk songs of Peter, Paul and Mary, John Denver and The Kingston Trio, as well as selections of Christian and popular music. Their performances usually include guitar, flute, and three-part harmonies. Members Sam Creyer and Lynn Glancy have been singing together for twelve years. Maureen Calder joined the group three years ago. They all live and work in the Lehigh Valley. Aug. 26

BIG NITE OUT! is a seven-piece swing band featuring the dazzling harmonies of three female vocalists. Instrumentally, the ensemble includes guitars, saxophone, upright bass, and drums. Together the seven musicians bring to life swing tunes from the 1930s and 1940s, as well as original swing, western swing and early 1960s rock tunes. Vocalists are Lauren Bono, co-founder of the band; Wendi Bourne, co-founder and rhythm guitarist; and Annie Patterson. Instrumentalists are Tom Mitchell, guitar; Michael Sweetman, saxophone; Mory Behar, upright bass; and Peter Barus, drums. Aug. 26

MARK BODEY is a full-time magician, comedian, and mentalist. He has studied his profession at the Chavez College of Magic in Colon, Michigan. Bodey has performed at many malls, hotels, festivals, and corporate events throughout eastern Pennsylvania. Aug. 19

Three year old BOO DOO blends the styles of jazz, new age and rock. The members of the four-piece band, led by multi-reedist Bob Magnuson and guitarist Tony Viscardo, also include John Arbo, acoustic bass and vocals, and Joe Passaro, percussion and vocals. Group members have all performed at the Kool Jazz Festival, appeared on television and movie spots, and have written various jingles. Aug. 19

Travelin' Man ROY BOOK BINDER has been described as "a hot picker, an expressive singer, an amusing character and a mesmerizing yarn-spinner." He weaves it all together into an evening of "hillbilly blues" music and stories. A regular guest on the The Nashville Network's program Nashville Now, he has toured with Bonnie Raitt and performed with B.B. King, Doc Watson, and Ray Charles. He lives full-time in an Airstream motorhome performing coast to coast wherever fans of American roots music gather — at State and county fairs, jazz, blues, folk and traditional music festivals and clubs nationwide. Aug. 23, 24

VINCE BOTTEON AND THE BAVARIAN AMBASSADORS ORCHESTRA perform instrumental and vocal ethnic music and specialize in German and Austrian music. The group originated in the Lehigh Valley 36 years ago. This is their fifth Musikfest appearance. Aug. 21

Beltane

Boo Doo

JOHN BRESSLER sings, plays the piano, and gets grown men and women to stand on their chairs and cluck like chickens, moo like cows, quack like ducks, chomp like alligators and oink like pigs. It's all part of Bressler's United States "All Night Diner Tour '89." In 1988 he received international attention with the release of his current album Fresh Ground. He combines his raspy voice in blends of rock and roll, country, blues, gospel, jazz and comedy. Bressler has appeared with the Miami Sound Machine, Ray Charles, Willie Nelson, and Kool and the Gang. Aug. 21

SONGS FROM THE BRITISH MUSIC HALL are produced by Chris Simmons, a Bethlehem resident who is a native of London, England. Simmons has done research in various museums and archives in Great Britain and is known for his studies and interpretation of music hall material. These performances, as authentic as they can be in the 1980s, present the songs and monologues of the British Music Hall stage in the late 1800s and early 1900s. The high point of the organization's history is the respect that it has garnered from music hall aficionados in England. Aug. 21

The STEVE BROSKY BAND with PETE FLUCK is a new group on the Musikfest scene. They have been performing together for five years. The group did a small tour with the Beach Boys and had a regional hit called "Do the Dutch". Instrumentation is sax, guitar, bass, drums, and vocals. Aug. 27

SAUL BROUDY — performer, traveler, and folklorist — presents music from the roots of American culture. His career spans almost 20 years of performance in virtually every major folk music venue in the United States, Canada, and many European countries. Broudy sings country, blues, bluegrass and other traditional and contemporary forms of grassroots American music, accompanying himself on guitar and harmonica. He is backed up by a mandolinist/fiddler and a bassist. This is his fifth year at Musikfest. Aug. 21

Tom Chapin

Ashley Cleveland

BUSKIN & BATTEAU are a folk-rock duo, music industry veterans, formerly members of the band Pierce Arrow and back-up musicians for Tom Rush. These popular performers have sung at Carnegie Hall in New York, Symphony Hall in Boston, The Barns at Wolftrap in Virginia, and the Newport, Philadelphia, and Ann Arbor Folk Festivals. They are successful songwriters and even more successful jingle writers. If you don't recognize their songs "Death in Venice", "ESPN", "He Used to Treat Her", or "The Boy with the Violin", you may very well know their individual jingle efforts in "The Unsinkable Taste of Cheerios", "NBC-Just Watch Us Now", or Chevy's "The Heartbeat of America". They share a concert with Livingston Taylor. Aug. 20

THE BUZZ BAND is a newly formed blues band whose members are made up of seasoned local musicians who have been playing in various local bands for up to 25 years. The band describes blues as "emotion expressed through sound" and plays it "from the gut." Aug. 26

Comedy juggler CAPTAIN JUGGLE is high school math teacher Jerry Battenfield. He has played at "Celebration '84: Festival of the Arts", Dorney Park, a Victorian Wedding Celebration in Jim Thorpe, and as the juggler in the Chansonette Theatre's production of "Barnum" at the State Theatre in Easton. He is a member of the International Jugglers Association. Aug. 19, 20, 24

BOB CARLIN of Philadelphia brings his sense of humor and his five-string banjo back to Musikfest. He has toured Europe and the United States, performing a mixture of swing, early country music, Appalachian ballads and country music. He is particularly well-known for his banjo playing and is a master of traditional American banjo styles. Carlin has recorded several albums and received a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts for the PBS radio series Our Musical Heritage. Carlin hosts the radio program "Country Boy Rock'n'Roll" on WHYY-FM in Philadelphia. Aug. 22

TOM CHAPIN comes from a family of performers including father, Jim, a noted jazz drummer; and brother, Harry, a respected folk singer. Chapin's diverse history includes host for the ABC-TV kids show Make A Wish, actor in Broadway's "Pump Boys and Dinettes," an All-American basketball player and sound technician for the shark documentary, Blue Water, White Death. He's been active in charity work, most notably with World Hunger Year, founded by his late brother Harry. Chapin has recorded three solo albums of his own material, Life Is Like That (1976), In The City Of Mercy (1982) and, most recently, Family Tree. He follows last year's solo Kunstplatz performance with an appearance in the 1989 Candlelight series. Aug. 25

CHAPTER II sings traditional jazz, Dixieland and contemporary tunes a capella and recently placed fifth in the 1989 regional barbershop quartet competition held in Altoona, Pa. Members of the Lehigh Valley Chapter of the Sweet Adelines, these ladies are returning for the third year to Musikfest. Aug. 24, 27

THE CLANCY BROTHERS with Robbie O'Connell is an outstanding Irish folksinging group which brings the spirit of Ireland and its culture to many countries through their concerts and recordings. The brothers, Pat, Tom and Bobby, have been performing together since they were infants and are joined on stage by nephew, Robbie O'Connell. In addition to touring as a group, Tom acts on Broadway and in Hollywood, Pat has a recording company and farms, and Bobby and Robby each perform solo. The Clancy Brothers/Live with Robbie O'Connell is the group's 33rd album. Aug. 24

CLARENCE THE CLOWN is making his sixth appearance at Musikfest. His presentation, as he describes it, uses "balloons, more balloons, some magic, and lots more balloons." Some of his career highlights are "Doing Dorney," 1987 Kids' Week, meeting Mickey Mouse and Goofy, and receiving an award from the Scranton State School for the Deaf in 1986 and 1987 (the latter two as real life Bruce J. Ward of Danielsville, Pa.) Clarence is noted both for his balloon sculptures and his profound weakness for chocolate bars — plain or almond. Aug. 19, 20

ASHLEY CLEVELAND is a master guitarist, lyricist, vocalist, stylist and humorist. She can unleash a riveting rock anthem that will have you dancing, belt out scorching, passionate blues, and stroke a soft ballad with control and mastery. She performs at festivals and universities throughout the United States. Aug. 24

THE COLORADO STRING QUARTET is one of the most sought-after ensembles of the day, performing 100 concerts a year in the major cities of Europe, South America, the Far East and throughout North America. The Quartet is active in contemporary American music, having commissioned new works by Ezra Laderman, Karl Husa and George Tsontakis. They were awarded a Consortium Commission Grant from the National Endowment for the Arts in 1985. The quartet's recording of Mozart's Quartets in A major K.464 and C major K.465 was released by Fidelio last season. Their recording of Quartets 1 and 6 from Beethoven's Op.18 will be released this season by Fidelio. Members are Julie Rosenfeld and Deborah Redding, violin; Francesca Martin, viola; and Diane Chaplin, cello. Aug. 22

The CONCORD CHAMBER SINGERS of Bethlehem was founded 22 years ago by Blaine Shover, its current director and Professor of Music at Shippensburg University. The group presents annual Christmas and spring concerts, and have sung at the Pennsylvania and Singing City Choral Festivals. The group performed Haydn's The Creation this spring with the Lehigh Valley Chamber Orchestra and has been invited to sing in the Salzburg (Austria) Church Music Festival. The Singers return to the Vesper series with their wonderful blend of voices. Aug. 23

RICHARD COWLEY, STREET MAGICIAN, has been a regular performer at Philadelphia's New Market for 12 seasons. He specializes in direct, baffling, in-your-face magic; no high tech is tolerated! The magic in his show is secondary to the exciting, spontaneous, live performance. He uses simple props and his favorite instrument — the audience. Cowley emphasizes the performance, not the performer. Aug. 20, 24

CRITTON HOLLOW's music has its roots in the West Virginia mountains they call their home. From Old Time fiddle tunes, rags and ballads to traditional and contemporary folk songs, they effortlessly make their music come alive. Trading duties on hammered dulcimer, fiddle, guitar, mandolin, banjo and bass, the trio of Joe Herrmann, Sam Herrmann and Joe Fallon have carried their music across the United States and Canada since 1975. Their impressive musicianship is complemented by great three-part harmony singing. Critton Hollow currently has four records to their credit. Aug. 27

CUCKOO'S NEST is a Celtic trio from the Philadelphia area. They play lively jigs, rolling reels, sweet and soulful ballads and enchanting slow airs and graces. The group is made up of three award-winning Celtic musicians who have performed together for six years. Members are Joanna Mell, guitar, mandolin, harp, vocals; Dave Miller, fiddle; Chris Carpenter, guitar, banjo, mandolin, tin whistle, bodhran, and vocals. Aug. 24

DAVID CULLEN is a 1981 graduate of the Hartt School of Music. He performed a New York Debut Recital in 1985 during the International Guitar Festival sponsored by the American Institute of Guitar. He was featured in performances with Will Ackerman during the 1986 Windham Hill Tenth Anniversary Summer Tour and is on the 1988 Windham Hill Guitar Sampler with his solo composition "On the Way." Also in 1988, he performed in the National Public Radio broadcast live from Merkin Hall, "Nu Sounds," with John Schaefer. Aug. 20

DABKET LUBNAN, which means "the Dance of Lebanon", originated in Easton about nine years ago. The troupe is a Lebanese folkloric dance troupe that has performed throughout the Northeastern United States and Canada. They have also received national recognition upon taking first place in a folklore contest in Los Angeles, California. Aug. 26 CANCELLED

THE BRUCE DAIGREPONT CAJUN BAND performs Cajun and Zydeco music, presenting exciting, lively concerts. Daigrepoint has roots in the Acadian part of Louisiana, and his music is drawn from this background. The band plays traditional instruments — handmade Cajun French accordion, three row zydeco accordion, fiddle, bass, drums, triangle (t fer) and washboard (frottoir). The group has two albums on Rounder Records, Stir Up the Roux, which won the 1988 Cajun French Music Association Album of the Year award, and Cover de Cadjins. They have performed in Canada at the Festival D'Ete in Quebec City and the Festival Du Voyageur in Manitoba. United States appearances have included the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival for nine years in a row, the Blue Bayou Festival in Bethesda, Maryland, Lincoln Center's Folk Heritage Festival, and Philadelphia's Jambalaya Jam. Daigrepoint and group also play the Sunday night Cajun bash at Tipitina's in New Orleans most weeks. Aug. 27.

The DAISY JUG BAND of Levittown, Pa., is known for "good-time music" and their ability to involve the audience in their performance. The band originated 18 years ago and is returning to Musikfest for a third time. Band members are Harold Harr, washtub bass; Ed Stolosky, scrub-board; Dick Gerlack, five-string banjo and fiddle; Vic Paul, keyboards and garden hose; Paul Aussicker, guitar; and Joe Warne, tenor banjo and mandolin. Aug. 27

BOB DANNER'S LITTLE GERMAN BAND is making its fourth appearance at Musikfest. The band, which was organized in 1983, has been bringing the Big Band Sounds of German-American music to eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. Members include Bob Danner, saxophone, clarinet and flugelhorn; Bob Danner II, drums; Ron Reed, tuba; Carl Ritter, accordion; Bruce Kleppinger, baritone, trumpet and flugelhorn; Mark Mantz, trumpet and flugelhorn; and Joe Zoppi and Burt Swayze, clarinet and sax. Aug. 27

SUSAN DANOFF tells international folktales to children and adults in schools, libraries, museums, and festivals including the Smithsonian, the International Children's Festival at Wolf

Trap in Virginia, and the 92nd St. "Y" in New York City. Since 1986, she has been teaching a storytelling workshop series for undergraduates at Princeton University in New Jersey. She has also worked for the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, Artist-in-Education Program, conducting residencies in state schools. Her program is not designed for very young children. Aug. 24

DAYBREAK is a four-member acoustic music ensemble whose members all live and work in the Lehigh Valley. The group features the hammered dulcimer, guitar, mandolin, penny whistle and vocals. Its repertoire includes traditional and contemporary folk music as well as original material, some with an Irish flavor. Members are Cliff and Sally Cole, Denis Bloget and Rich Bernardin. Aug. 19

DEVONSQUARE has been together for 11 years and presents a critically acclaimed vocal sound and three part harmonies. The group has been chosen "Act of the Year" by WNEW radio in New York and has signed a two album contract with Atlantic Records. Members of the group, which originated in Portland, Maine, are Tom Dean, Alana MacDonald and Herb Ludwig. Aug. 19

The FRANK DiBUSSOLO QUARTET is comprised of June Thomas, vocals and keyboards; Kjell Benner, bass and electric bass; Wayne Maura, drums and percussion; and DiBussolo, classical and electric guitars and vocals. The quartet will present a compilation of swing, blues, jazz, pop, and Latin music. DiBussolo is the president of Combs College of Music in Philadelphia and teaches at Lehigh University. He has played as studio musician and accompanist to Buddy Rich, Vicky Carr, and Dom DeLuise. Aug. 19

DAN DIXON AND MELLOW MADNESS is a four-member band which recently completed its first album on Bourgeois Records. They perform blues, Latin / Caribbean and jazz music. Members are Dixon, guitar, keyboards and percussion; Kim Luybli, guitar and keyboards; F. Scott Berdux, saxes and keyboards; and Jim Touchton, bass guitar. Aug. 19

D. J. AND THE C.B. PICKERS of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania have been together since 1980. The group performed its country and bluegrass at Musikfest '88. They have played extensively throughout Pennsylvania, Maryland, and West Virginia. Members are Joe Longwell, guitar and dobro; Donna Jones McLaughlin, bass; Dan Mazer, banjo; and Lee Jones, mandolin, fiddle and guitar. Aug. 27.

RICHARD DRUEDING and TOM GALA have been playing and recording together for over a year. Drueding is a self-taught guitarist who performs a blend of traditional and unconventional music which he draws from backgrounds of folk, classical, jazz and rock influences. Gala has been composing and singing songs for the past 10 years and has completed four recordings. Both plan to perform extensively and release an album. Drueding is currently recording his own instrumental compositions for a solo album. Aug. 25.

DUKE & THE BRIER PATCH PUPPETS are perennial Musikfest favorites. Duke Kraus has been a puppeteer for 12 years. He was selected as a feature performer at the 1st International Street Performer Festival in Key West, Florida, in 1987. Kraus uses his puppets and imagination in a show to bring joy to his audience — from the littlest child to the oldest grown-up. He began work as a street performer and now plays at colleges, corporations, comedy clubs, and museums. Aug. 20, 27

THE DUKE ELLINGTON ORCHESTRA, conducted by Mercer Ellington, continues to introduce young and old alike to the rich treasures of the music by Duke Ellington. The orchestra's repertoire is complemented by Mercer's own compositions and arrangements of jazz, blues, swing and Top 40 standards. The orchestra recently performed in a "Battle of the Bands" with the Danish Radio Orchestra in Copenhagen that had the crowds stompin'. Their latest recording, Digital Duke, is on the G.R.P. label. Aug. 22

Pianist KONRAD ELSER was born in Schwabisch Gmund, West Germany, and completed his study in piano at the Stuttgart Conservatory. In 1982 he distinguished himself in the Mendelssohn Competition in Berlin, and the following year he was awarded the Bronze Medal in the Piano Competition in Geneva, Switzerland. He subsequently captured major awards in the Bonn Competition and the Busoni Competition in Bolzano, Italy. Alto RENEE MORLOCK is well known throughout Germany for her performances in opera and song. She has gained particular recognition for her interpretation of "Gypsy Songs," from the operas of Verdi, Bizet, and Busoni and from the song literature of Brahms, Wolf, and others. In collaboration with pianist Elser, she has presented concerts throughout Europe. Morlock has studied in Stuttgart and at the Salzburg Mozarteum. She has performed with the opera companies in Stuttgart and Frankfurt and on many radio broadcasts. She also has appeared as guest soloist with the music festivals in Salzburg, Austria; Warsaw, Poland; Cork, Ireland; and Ludwigsburg, West Germany. Aug. 21

TOM ESPINOLA and LORRAINE DUISIT are a talented and versatile duo from the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. Surrounded by a circle of acoustic instruments, their performances might include lively duets for mandolin and mandocello, a tango in 5/4 for Troubadour harp and classical guitar, a frame drum demonstration, and a Hebrew melody on bowed psaltery and harp-guitar made in 1899. The duo plans to record their second album in April. Their current release, Feather River, is on the Philo label. Aug. 21

MARVIN FALCON has appeared at Musikfest three times, returning for a second year with his jazz ensemble. The group's repertoire emphasizes standard songs played in a jazz style with strong bossa nova and classical elements. This ensemble has appeared around the East Coast. Falcon has performed with Harry Belafonte, Miriam Makeba, and Paul Winters. He has also recorded for RCA Records and appeared on the Tonight Show. Aug. 23

The GUITAR STUDENTS OF MARVIN FALCON are presenting classical guitar pieces at Familienplatz. Aug. 23

FRAN FALLON is a popular newcomer to the acoustic entertainment scene in the Allentown-Bethlehem area. She was "discovered" by Phil Stahl in 1988 and subsequently has appeared on WXLV-FM and "Starlight Stage" on cable television. Fallon has been playing guitar and writing songs for 14 years. Aug. 21

Oriental Magic by FANTASIA-KI AND COMPANY returns for a second year to Musikfest. The performance combines magic and karate, all carefully set to music. Fantasia is George C. Reiger, Jr., current president of the Allentown Society of Magicians Ring #32. He performs over 100 shows annually and has added four of today's newest illusions to his act, making it the largest illusion show from Allentown to Atlantic City and New York. Aug. 24, 25

FLAMENCO OLE' will bring the spirit and excitement of Spain to Volksplatz. Flamenco is sensuous and arrogant dance, feet pounding in a staccatto celebration. Through the medium of flamenco, Julia Lopez, Carlos Rubio and company have enthralled audiences everywhere. Direct from a tour in Spain, their colorful costumes, authentic dance, songs and musical arrangements should not be missed! Aug. 27

Inspired by the "Nueva Cancion" movement, FLOR DE CAÑA performs contemporary Latin folk music with traditional Central American instrumentation such as the charango, a string instrument from the Andes; the zamponas, Andean panpipes; and bombo, a large Andean drum. They also play with Caribbean percussion, such as congas and bongos, along with contemporary instruments including the guitar, piano, sax, electric bass and flute. The group originated in Boston, Massachusetts, following a cultural exchange trip to Central America. Their first album Muevete is on Flying Fish record label. Aug. 19, 20

FOUR NATIONS ENSEMBLE originated three years ago in New York City. The group performs classical and Baroque music on violin, viola de gamba and harpsichord. Aug. 22

FOUR'S COMPANY is a barbershop quartet, consisting of lead Lou Nicharot, bass Terry Johnson, baritone Dick Pedersen, and tenor Bill Koczen. They are all from the Lehigh Valley and are members of the Lehigh Valley Harmonizers, the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America. This quartet has been performing for the past five years. Their songs range from the Gay Nineties through the Roaring Twenties to the present. Aug. 24, 27

FREE FLIGHT combines classical music and jazz. It draws from a repertoire that includes original compositions as well as material by Bach, Barber, Beethoven, and Brubeck. Members come from backgrounds of classical training and rock performances. They include Jim Walker, founder and flutist; Jim Lacefield, bass; Ralph Humphrey, drums; and Mike Garson, keyboards. The group released its debut album for CBS Masterworks titled, Illumination. Aug. 23

DAVE FRY is one of the major influences on the Lehigh Valley entertainment scene today. His committed direction of Godfrey Daniels Coffeehouse has made Bethlehem a featured stop on the national folk circuit. Fry plays mandolin, banjo, guitar, kazoo, and the audience. He played for the 1987 Philadelphia Folk Festival and this year will make a German tour as a representative of Musikfest and the City of Bethlehem. He recently released his second album, a kids' tape called Aw Shucks. Aug. 22, 24, 26

BEORN SUNFLOWER, one of Fry's students, will join him on the Familienplatz stage to exhibit his skill. Aug. 24

FUNKY BUSINESS is a jazz-rock quartet which began when the group was working together as back-up musicians in a recording studio. Their material is about 50 percent original. The group is made up of Jim McGee, bass; Mike Trach, saxophones; Bela Sarkozy, guitar; and Gary Rissmiller, drums. Aug. 22

The JOE FURST ORCHESTRA has been playing together for three years. Joe Furst, formerly the sax, clarinet, and trumpet member of the Walt Groller Orchestra, is the leader of this band whose members are from Berks and Lehigh Counties. They perform polkas and waltzes as well as music from the 1940s to contemporary tunes. The band appears at many events within the Lehigh Valley. One of their 1988 highlights was performing at Trump Casino in Atlantic City. Aug. 26, 27

GENE GALLIGAN has been a lounge performer in the Philadelphia area for the past several years. Formerly a member of The Johnstons, he has recorded with that group and with Johnny Cunningham, Scottish fiddler of Silly Wizard, on his Fair Warning album. He recently recorded with Donna Weiss on her Harvest album. Galligan's repertoire ranges from 1930s and 1940s to country to contemporary original compositions. He sings and plays keyboards and is backed up by his puppet friends, Percy and The Laughing Man. Aug. 21

ALAN GAUMER QUARTET, with special guest vocalist Robin Bryan, presents contemporary jazz for the second year at Musikfest. Instrumentation of the group includes trumpet, keyboards, bass, and drums. Formerly a member of the U.S. Navy Show Band, Gaumer plays extensively throughout the Lehigh Valley and the Poconos. He currently is Entertainment Director at the Acorn Hotel in Allentown. Bryan performs all over eastern Pennsylvania, frequently in her role as featured vocalist. Aug. 22

GERI GEROME, a native of Allentown, has been performing professionally since she graduated Allentown Central Catholic High School. Her unique style of singing, dancing, and solo guitar work, together with her dynamic personality and flair as a natural comedienne, have been consistently received with standing ovations in Atlantic City. "Geraldine" is home again, performing with her back-up group "MUSIC MEN". She looks forward to opening her own club in the near future. MEET THE ARTIST! Aug. 25 CANCELLED

Jonathan Gilley &
Second Vision

John Gorka

JONATHAN GILLEY AND SECOND VISION is an innovative and energetic jazz quartet. The group plays original compositions, arrangements of the great jazz standards, and fresh treatments of Latin and Salsa. Including Gilley on bass, Timothy Ries on saxophones, Michael Holober on piano, and Willard Dyson on drums, the quartet's musical scope ranges from an up-tempo burner to a gentle bossa nova to a funky re-working of the blues. Aug. 26

Although originally from Colonia, New Jersey, JOHN GORKA has adopted the Lehigh Valley area. Since 1983 he has recorded his songs for New York City's unique Fast Folk Musical Magazine and has been featured in their reviews. In 1984, Gorka won the New Folk Award at the Kerrville Folk Festival in Kerrville, Texas. Since then he has appeared in clubs and concerts all over the Northeast United States and has a growing audience in the Midwest and Texas. His current album is on Red House Records. Aug. 24

The GOSCHENHOPPEN CORNET BAND is 11 years old and enjoys sharing programs which include a wide variety of musical styles adapted for brass instruments. The band has played concerts, festivals and special events in the Delaware Valley. Members of the group play cornets, trumpets, horn, trombone, tuba and percussion. They performed at Musikfest in 1987 and 1988. Aug. 19

The GREATER LEHIGH VALLEY YOUTH ORCHESTRA was formed about 10 years ago in order to provide young musicians with an opportunity to perform music at a more advanced level than is possible in a local high school orchestra. The Junior String Orchestra offers a similar opportunity for younger students. The group has played at Musikfest three times. Aug. 19

The WALT GROLLER ORCHESTRA of Whitehall, Pa., have been performing locally for 44 years, presenting their style of European and polka music. Groller and the four members of his band tour extensively in the United States. Their repertoire includes Mexican, Caribbean and traditional American favorites. In 1986, Groller was elected to the Polka Music Hall of Fame in Chicago and in 1988, he was nominated for a Grammy Award. Aug. 23, 27

AL GROUT has been performing for 11 years. He plays about 200 shows a year at resorts in Atlantic City and the Poconos, malls, festivals and colleges. He has performed at the Allentown Fair, Philadelphia's Please Touch Museum, and with the Hershey Symphony Orchestra. This is his fifth year at Musikfest. Aug. 19, 22

The FRANK HANNER ORCHESTRA is an Austrian / Bavarian group that plays big band, Latin, country, light rock, religious, classical, and their specialty, ethnic polkas and waltzes. The group consists of seven members featuring the vocals of the harmonious twins, the PANNY SISTERS, and the multi-talented orchestra leader, Frank Hanner, who plays the accordion. The orchestra has released three albums. The group will perform at the Munich, Germany Oktoberfest in September. Aug. 21

Happy Boombadears

HANOVER TOWNSHIP SOCIETY FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE BIG BAND SOUND IN AMERICA was formed 23 years ago by fans of the music of the 1930s and 1940s. The society has continued since then, featuring the numbers played by the Big Bands of those days, such as Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey. The band plays at community events, and its members play in other area musical organizations. Aug. 23

The HAPPY BOOMBADEARS is a group of people who enjoy getting together to play the boom-ba, a percussion instrument composed of a five-foot pole with a spring base, to which is attached a tambourine, cow-bell, wood block, Swiss bells and cymbals. In 1974, the group became the first chartered boom-ba club in America. "Its purpose is to bring happiness and goodwill through music and service to our communities." The Boombadears appeared at Musikfest in 1984, 1985 and 1988. Aug. 20

HAPPY POLKATEERS are Dave Betz, piano and accordion; Don Wunderler, boom-bas; and Joe Mueller, drums. The group began ten years ago and has been performing steadily for the past two years. They have travelled from the Pocono Mountains to many places in the Lehigh Valley, including the old Bethlehem Steel Country Club. Their first job was a backyard party that lasted for 12 hours, and they still exhibit the same energy, enthusiasm, and stamina. Aug. 24, 26

DAN HART's compositions speak of universal life experiences, both sad and humorous. Three of his originals have been given honorable mention in national songwriting competitions. He has been playing professionally for almost 10 years. His repertoire of over 300 songs by artists ranging from the Beatles to Bruce Cockburn, along with his own imaginative originals, ensure a pleasurable evening for any audience. Aug. 22

The HEARTBEATS are four talented and versatile musicians - June Drucker, Tara Nevins, Beverly Smith, and Rose Sinclair - who have become one of the hottest new bands on the festival circuit. The group plays traditional music as well as original music that reflect the influences of rock and roll, Motown, third world music and contemporary pop sounds. The group has played at the Vancouver and New York City Folk Festivals and the Hudson River Revival among others. Aug. 19.

The LEROY HEFFENTRAGER BAND plays big band, comedy variety and polka music. Instrumentation includes trumpet, accordion, reeds, and drums. The band has performed on cruises as well as throughout the United States and Europe, and it will make its 17th appearance at the Kutztown Folk Festival this year. Aug. 23.

HELICON is an exciting trio which combines the virtuosity and diverse musical backgrounds of its members to perform music ranging from driving improvisational treatments of folk music from many traditions to thoughtful interpretations of classical works. Members are Chris Norman, wooden flute and penny whistle; Ken Kolodner, hammer dulcimer and fiddle; and Robin Bullock, guitar, cittern and fiddle. The group's first album, Helicon, was recorded live and follows the success of Norman and Kolodner's 1986 debut duo album, Daybreak, which has received unanimous critical acclaim. Aug. 25

With guitar, a beautifully pure voice and a love of folk music, CAROLYN HESTER took her music to New York in the early 1960s and emerged into national prominence. She recorded several albums on major labels, sang at two Edinburgh Folk Festivals in Scotland, and toured Europe and the United States. Today, she continues to display her singing and songwriting skills with new works that reflect her Southwestern background, and she is on the road again. Hester sang at Musikfest in 1986. Aug. 26

The HIGH SOCIETY RAGTIME BAND was organized in 1985. The band recreates an orchestrated two-beat classic ragtime and vintage dixieland experience. The band is performing at Musikfest for the fifth year. Instrumentation includes trumpet, trombone, clarinet, tenor sax, tuba, drums, and banjo or guitar. Aug. 20

ANNE HILLS is receiving tremendous attention with the release of her new Flying Fish album, Woman of a Calm Heart. Her voice has inspired comparisons with Joan Baez and Judy Collins. She toured and recorded extensively with Tom Paxton before she began her solo career in 1985. She has been a special guest on National Public Radio's Good Evening, performed at Carnegie Hall in New York City with the Kingston Trio and Mary Travers, and led the finale for the Winnipeg Folk Festival in Canada. Hills performs the best of the new songs by some of America's finest songwriters and continues to captivate audiences wherever she appears. Aug. 24

THE HI-TOPS performs classic New Orleans jazz, swinging Harlem melodies, jumpin' jive and big band. Formerly known as the Bourbon Street Jass Band, the members are Greg Wall, clarinet and saxophone; Jon "Stitch" Seiger, trumpet and vocals; Ben Williams, trombone; Del Bialostosky, guitar and banjo; Dave "Split" Richards, bass; and John "Junior" Meyers, drums and percussion. The group returns to Musikfest for another spectacular Candlelight Concert performance. Aug. 26

Nineteen year old jazz alto saxophonist CHRISTOPHER HOLLYDAY is the youngest player ever to lead a group at the historic Village Vanguard jazz club in New York, where he performed nightly last July to a packed house accompanied by Ron Carter, Walter Davis, Jr., and Beaver Harris. Hollyday has been featured on NBC's Nightly News and P.M. Magazine, The Today Show, and People Magazine. His latest album, Reverence, was recently released on RBI Records in New York featuring the altoist with Cedar Walton, Ron Carter and Billy Higgins. He performs regularly in concert at colleges and festivals with his quartet. Aug. 27

THE HOLT TWINS AND TONY T. will be performing together for the second year at Musikfest. The Holt Twins, Linda and Emily, have been harmonizing together since early childhood. They play countless instruments including six and twelve string guitars, bass, keyboards, flute, viola, fiddle, mandolin, banjo and recorder, plus the ukelele and chartola. The group's repertoire consists of original music plus songs from other artists. TONY TALARICO of Plowville, Pa., has been playing music for 15 years. He is the originator of the Pocono Mountain Jamboree, has performed with Tom Chapin, and recently completed a second album, Songs of Life, Love and Letting Go. He presents contemporary folk music on the twelve-string guitar. This is Tony's second year at Musikfest and the Holt Twins fourth year. Aug. 27

XAVIER EDOUARD HOREMANS is a young Belgian jazz pianist and composer making a very special appearance at Musikfest '89. He studied at the Academy of Music of Berchem Ste Agathe and the Academy of Music of Jette, both in Brussels, the Berklee School of Music in Boston, and Conservatoire Royal de Musique de Liege, Belgium. Horemans has played with Toots Thielemans, Jake Porter, Ronny Parker, Stephane Grappelli, and the Belgian Air Force Band, and he has performed in Northern Europe and in the United States. His compositions have been performed for movies, a play, and tap-dance productions. Horemans has several recordings to his credit. For several of his performances, he will be joined on stage by MO ROLLAND. Rolland has studied saxophone with Phil Woods. He has performed in Holland, Italy, Greece, and the Virgin Islands, and he has been an opening act for Ray Charles, James Brown, Earth Wind and Fire, and Wilson Pickett. Aug. 23, 24, 25

From Ithaca, New York, THE HORSEFLIES are an innovative and powerfully rhythm-based band of electric and acoustic violin, electric guitar, 5-string banjo, keyboards, processed banjo-ukulele, electric bass and drums/percussion. With no current musical category neatly fitting their unique sound, they have been said to play "new wave roots music", "neo-primitive folk-rock", and "artsy music that's danceable". The group has played festivals, concerts and clubs throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. The group has released two albums on the Rounder label, Chokers and Flies and Human Fly. Aug. 19

STEVE HUBER AND THE HAPPY AUSTRIANS, with their enormous popularity and following have been popular performers since 1978. Members are Huber, Gerhard Huber, Andy Palco, Rich Wolfer, and Ed Gloss. Aug. 24

THE ORIGINAL HURDY-GURDY MAN is Donald Heller, a 20th century wandering minstrel. He plays traditional, European, and comic songs, as well as music of the Middle Ages and Renaissance, on his hurdy-gurdy. This mechanical violin was invented 900 years ago and sounds like the bagpipes. Heller and his wife, the Hurdy-Gurdy Lady, performed at Musikfest in 1985 and 1986. They are having another Hurdy-Gurdy Baby this summer, so he will be performing solo this year. Aug. 23, 24

INTERWEAVE is a contemporary jazz trio featuring Frank Giasullo on piano, John Davey on bass, and Patrick Tamminen on drums. The trio was formed seven years ago and has been performing in concerts and clubs on the East Coast. Interweave currently has an album, Expedition, on Vanderveer Records and is currently working on material for a new one. The group's music combines aspects of classical, folk, and gospel as well as jazz. Aug. 21

I PAESANI: Italian Singers and Dancers of the Lehigh Valley present the rich musical heritage of traditional Italian music, sung in the original dialects as well as folk dances of all the regions of Italy. The group has given cultural tours and workshops and appeared at various festivals. The current group members have been together for seven years. Aug. 20

JANCI BROTHERS, Joe and Jack, have been performing together for 22 years. Their country/folk/bluegrass music has taken them to New York and the Lone Star Cafe in 1983 and 1984 and to Nashville, Tennessee, where they played on The Nashville Network in 1987. They performed at the Easton Homeless Benefit this year. This is the Jancis' third Musikfest performance. Aug. 23

THE JOCK-ULAR JUGGLER is Bob Nickerson from Gallitzin, Pennsylvania. He began juggling in Guam in 1976 and placed in the top ten in the United States National Juggling Championships in 1985, 1986, and 1987. He juggles the standard balls, rings, and clubs as well as bowling balls and pins, pool cues, golf clubs, and basketballs. His press credits include CBS Sunday News, CBS Morning News, ABC's Good Morning America, Sports Illustrated, and the Associated Press. Nickerson has even juggled at the White House! Aug. 26, 27

In 1989, the JOLLY BAVARIANS was the featured German Band at the VIP Music Festival in Wilkes-Barre and the Shawnee Balloon Festival in Pennsylvania. Along with these special events, the band entertains all year with their brassy Bavarian sound in Austrian and German clubs throughout the east coast. This is their third year at Musikfest. Aug. 25

guitar, drums and trumpet to perform its Bavarian polkas. The band has been together for 25 years and has performed at Musikfest in 1986 and 1987. The band's current album is Up Up Up With Jolly Joe. Aug. 27

JUGGERNAUT has delighted audiences from the plains of Kansas to the Vienna Woods with their witty treatment of musical relics, hot dance tunes and original ditties. Formed in 1975, this American string band has made numerous appearances in concert and on television and radio, including an internationally broadcast special by the B.B.C. Highlight performances include the Vienna, Austria; Cambridge, England; Roskilde, Denmark; and Philadelphia Folk Festivals. Swing and Sway with SAMMY KAYE ORCHESTRA, directed by Roger Thorpe, has been one of the top bands in the business for years. Kaye was Thorpe's mentor for many years, and the two admired each other's work and performed together professionally. Thorpe is carrying on the "swing and sway" tradition of the big band music, including "So You Want to Lead a Band." Aug. 20

KAZKA UKRAINIAN FOLK ENSEMBLE performs traditional and modern Ukrainian folk songs and dances and is based in Pottsville, Pa. Formed in 1987, the group was chosen to represent Schuylkill County at the Northeast Pennsylvania Development Corporation's "Arts Night" this past May at the Kirby Center in Wilkes-Barre. They performed at the Luzerne County Folk Festival in 1987 and the Penn State Slavic Festival in 1987 and 1988. Aug. 27

In 1985 country/folk singer ROBERT EARL KEEN, JR., signed with Rounder / Philo Records; in January 1986 he played the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in a concert headlining Emmylou Harris and including Nanci Griffith, Peter Rowan and Tom Rush; and in March 1986 he debuted his album No Kinda Dancer in a nation-wide television performance on The Nashville Network's New Country. Keen established himself in Texas as an important singer-songwriter by winning several songwriter's contests. Since 1985 he has been a mainstage act at Texas' Kerrville Music Festival and was chosen as one of 10 acts to return to the 1987 Summer Lights Festival in Nashville. Aug. 20

KEITH & JOHN perform contemporary Christian music. In addition to their vocal talents, Keith Quelet plays guitar and John Christie plays guitar, banjo, lap steel guitar, mandolin and harmonica. Composers as well as singers, the duo's first album of their own work is in production this summer. Quelet has appeared on television, radio, and as an opening act for national acts. Christie has played professionally for 15 years and has performed with the Kutztown University and Masters' Musicians Jazz Bands. Aug. 20

THE COMEDY MAGIC OF JOSEPH KEPPEL has been seen in clubs across Europe and the United States and at local festivals. Keppel has been performing his magic for 16 years and has been the house magician at the Spring Valley Inn since 1983. Keppel performed at Musikfest in 1986, 1987, and 1988. He visits over 150 schools with his educational program, "The Magic of Reading," and he has worked as a trade show magician for several major United States corporations. Aug. 21, 22, 26

The KEY-NOTES ORCHESTRA, founded in 1958, is led by Frank Jurasits. They appeared on the Ted Mack Show in 1962, and since then have performed not only in Pennsylvania, but also in New Jersey and New York. The orchestra first appeared at Musikfest in 1985. Their repertoire consists of German, Czechoslovakian, Polish and American music. In addition to Jurasits on the drums, the musicians, all from the Lehigh Valley, include Herman Fischl, trumpet; James Greb, accordion; Joe Piervallo, tuba; and Fred Principato, saxophone and clarinet. MORAVIAN

MORAVIAN COLLEGE BETHLEHEM, PENNSYLVANIA

Nearly four centuries ago, John Amos Comenius shook up the world of education. He thought everyone should have a chance to learn, poor as well as rich, women as well as men. He insisted that real learning comes not from memorized facts but from insight that grows from understanding, just as "when a bird is to be clothed with feathers, they are not taken from another bird, but grow from the innermost part of the body."

His followers thought the New World was a good place to try out revolutionary ideas. They founded Moravian College.

Highlighted by a subscription series of six pairs of concerts featuring internationally renowned soloists, the Chamber Orchestra, now beginning its ninth season, appears in more than sixty performances annually including youth concerts, opera, ballet, a mini-orchestra series, and various regional music festivals and events. This year it is part of the newly created Asa Packer Series to be held at Lehigh University. Aug. 19

Twenty million records and seven thousand sold-out shows ago, THE LETTERMEN hit the charts with their first single, "The Way You Look Tonight". Hit after hit followed: "When I Fall in Love", "Put Your Head on My Shoulder", and over fifty albums filled with special romantic Lettermen harmony. One deejay said, "The Lettermen sound was the best thing that happened to romance since moonlight." Aware of changes in music, the group has added the best of folk sounds, amplification, and synthesized beat over the years so that the group is always "today". In an age where trends in popular music are back to strong harmonies and solid melody lines, The Lettermen are more in demand than ever. It looks and sounds as if the first 25 years was only the beginning for Tony Butala, Ernie Pontiere, and Donovan Scott Tea. Aug. 19

BOBBY "LIPS" LEVINE AND HIS DIXIELAND ALL-STARS play jazz and Dixieland. Multi-instrumentalist Levine began performing 40 years ago and has worked with such talents as Tommy Dorsey, Bob Crosby, Billy Butterfield, Warren Covington, Sammy Kaye, and Fred Waring. Levine has performed at two presidential inaugural balls, the White House, Sun City (Africa), and Carnegie Hall, and he has played for such notables as Bob Hope, Jerry Lewis, and Cher. The All-Stars have played the Kool Jazz Festival, the Sacramento Jazz Jubilee, and the San Juan Islands Jazz Festival. Aug. 27

Jan Lewan is an entertainer and vocalist who credits Liberace as being a major influence on his work. He and the musicians of JAN LEWAN AND HIS ORCHESTRA capture the finest of Polish folk and polka music. They have performed at the Atlantis Casino Hotel in Atlantic City and at the Las Vegas Hilton's "Polka Weekend In Las Vegas" in November, 1988. Lewan, who has made several albums of popular as well as religious Polish music, appeared at Musikfest in 1984, 1985, 1987 and 1988. His appearances here have always drawn large enthusiastic audiences. Aug. 24, 25

Laurie Lewis is a fiddler, singer and writer who first began playing and singing bluegrass music in 1973. Raised in Berkeley, California, she was first exposed to bluegrass, old-time and folk music during the folk boom of the 1960s. She has toured and performed with a wide range of artists such as bluegrass traditionalist Vern Williams, singer/activist Holly Near, Peter Rowan, the Good Ol' Persons, and the Arkansas Sheiks, as well as with her own group, GRANT STREET. Members are Tammy Fassaert, Tom Rozum, Tony Furtado, and Scott Nygaard. Lewis released her first solo album, Restless Rambling Heart, on Flying Fish Records. Aug. 27

THE LIMITS were one of the Lehigh Valley's first original pop groups, with its roots going back 20 years. The group has released five LPs and six videos in America, as well as releases in France and England. Its contemporary rock sound has strong ties to the British music of the 1960s. The Limits have performed with major acts such as the Beach Boys and Chicago. Group members are Rick Levy, Beau Jones, Roger Girke and Wayne Achey. Aug. 27

TOM LOHRMAN PUPPETS presents "One-Man Band Of Instant Theater." He has performed at Musikfest for four years and has been working with puppets for over 30 years. He uses the Renaissance "bag" theater, where the puppeteer wears stage, puppets, and props, creating instant theater at any time and place. His stories are fables, fairy tales and animal tales told with hand, rod, and mouth puppets. Lohrman has performed for various state and county fairs, corporate promotions, and festivals. This past year he became the puppet artist-in-residence at Philadelphia's Please Touch Museum, one of the country's most promising children's museums. Aug. 26, 27

The members of LOS VALENTINOS, which first performed at Musikfest in 1984, come to the Lehigh Valley from Puerto Rico. Led by Raymond Sanabria on guitar, the group plays various Latin percussion instruments. The group's music is primarily Latin dance rhythms from the Caribbean: the guajira and salsa from Cuba, the balero from Puerto Rico and the merengue from Santo Domingo. The other members are Adrian Ortiz, bongos; Jesus Manuel Reyes, vocal; Nelson Sanabria, bass guitar; George Sullivan, congas; and Ricky Sullivan, timbales. Aug. 26

The Singers were founded in 1974 to sing 17th Century English madrigals. The two groups will combine their talents for a Vesper concert. Aug. 21

A MORAVIAN MUSIC FEST is a ticketed free concert by the Moravian Singers and will feature the songs of Bethlehem's

Moravian settlers. The choir consists of current members of the Moravian College Choir, its alumni and members of the Central Moravian Church. The group toured England in June, 1988, presenting American and Moravian music. These concerts are made possible through the generosity of the Estelle Borhek Johnston Memorial Fund. Aug. 19, 20

The MORAVIAN TROMBONE CHOIR is very much a part of the musical history of Bethlehem. It is the oldest musical organization in the country (founded in 1754) and offers a unique glimpse of the past and a tradition that makes history come alive. From the belfry of the Central Moravian Church, the trombonists announce all church festivals by playing chorales. As it has for each past Musikfest, the choir will sound chorales from the belfry early on the first day of the festival. Aug. 19 repertoire of ragtime, swing, blues, folk, comedy, and jazz music. The band is Douglas Banks, piano; Steve Hulslander, guitar, tenor banjo and vocals; Terry Wild, cornet, harmonica and vocals; Robert Garrett, fender bass and vocals; and Lou Feist, percussion. Aug. 20

Spontaneity and enthusiasm for traditional bluegrass and country highlight the performance of the MOUNTAIN LAUREL BLUEGRASS BAND. Members are Ty Searfoss, guitar and lead vocals; Mark Arrington, fiddle and vocals; John Catterall, banjo and vocals; George Steck, bass and vocals; and Leticia Arrington, vocals. The band has appeared at the 1987 Constitution Celebration, the 25th anniversary of the Philadelphia Folk Festival, and the Philadelphia Bluegrass and Old Time Music Festival. They once opened for Loretta Lynn. Aug. 25

MR. B — Mark Lincoln Braun — performs piano blues and "boogie woogie" music of the 1920s. He has two critically acclaimed solo albums Mr. B — Detroit Special on the Oldie Blues label and B's Bounce. He has presented his music to audiences in the midwest and all over Europe, Canada and Mexico. Aug. 24

The MUNICIPAL OPERA COMPANY OF ALLENTOWN is the sixth oldest opera company in this country today. It provides the community with an opportunity to enjoy musical theatre through performance, production, or as an audience member. The Opera Company also offers smaller ensembles' performances. The "Core Chorus" of about 40 voices will sing at Musikfest. Aug. 27

The MUSIKFEST CHICKEN is portrayed by Pat Holetz. It originated as a result of the popularity of the Chicken Dance Polka at Musikfest '84. The Chicken developed into the mascot and goodwill ambassador of Musikfest while greeting and dancing with visitors at the festival. Holetz is a Bethlehem native who has been a year-round volunteer with the festival since it began and is also active in other community organizations. Aug. 19-27

Standing ovations from capacity audiences and critical acclaim have earned the MUSIKFEST CHORUS a place of honor in this celebrated festival of the arts. The Chorus presented two concerts of American music, including excerpts from George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess", featuring Metropolitan Opera Basso David Arnold in 1986. In 1987, the chorus performed Beethoven's monumental Ninth Symphony. In 1988, the Chorus offered a program of Johannes Brahms' "Love Song Waltzes" for chorus and piano four-hand, folk songs, selections from musical theatre, and Peter Wilhousky's "Battle Hymn Of The Republic". This year, the Bethlehem Musikfest Association is pleased to announce the production of "KING DAVID", a symphonic psalm after a drama by Rene Morax with music by Arthur Honneger. This exciting concert will be an integral part of the inaugural season of the Asa Packer Series at Lehigh University. Aug. 25

MUSIKVEREIN FEUERWEHRKAPPELLE HUTTENHEIM was initially formed in 1920 as the Firemen's Band (Feuerwehrkapelle) by four firemen from the town of Huttenheim. It was upgraded in 1948, and in 1973 it changed directors and combined forces with a local youth band. The group later joined the German Wind Music Organization, a union for music clubs in Germany that encourages studying wind music and language. The band, now connected to the fire company only by its history, competes with other groups in the Wind Music Club. The young musicians usually take first prize. The group is working to expand its repertoire in German folk music. Aug. 19 - 27

STEPHANIE NAKASIAN and HOD O'BRIEN have performed together for nine years. Nakasian, vocalist, sang for two years with Grammy winner Jon Hendricks & Company, appeared at the Northsea Jazz Festival in Holland, the Kool Jazz Festival in New York, Wolf Trap in Virginia, and Radio City Music Hall. She regularly tours the East Coast, Europe and Japan. Her debut album, Comin' Alive, featuring Phil Woods, is on V.S.O.P. Records. O'Brien first appeared in the 1950s with Art Farmer, the Oscar Pettiford Quintet, and J.R. Monterose. He has recorded three albums, Bits & Pieces (Uptown), Opalescence (Criss Cross), and Shining Hour (Reservoir). Aug. 23

THE NATURALS is a four man group that plays polka music in the Polish style on the drums, saxophone, trumpet, synthesizer, violin and accordion. The group sings in three languages, English, Polish and Slovak. They perform at many Catholic Church festivals in the Lehigh Valley. Aug. 22, 23

HARLEY NEWMAN's favorite instrument to play is his audience, whose keys always change, whose strings aren't always attached, and whose rhythms rival a drum machine. He performed for over 40,000 people in about 200 performances in 1988. One of his best stunts has been escaping from a straight jacket while hanging upside down from a hot air balloon. On Saturday, he will do his straight-ahead comic lunacy. On Sunday, he will return to his ever-lovable "Harley the Clown" character. Aug. 19, 20

Songwriter and country/folk singer WILLIE NININGER has composed five songs for the Captain Kangaroo Show, including "I'm Proud to Be a Moose." He has appeared twice on Hee Haw with his sister Ann and has sung the National Anthem for the Mets at Shea Stadium five times. Club appearances have included the Lone Star Cafe, Bloomingdale's, and the Other End Cafe in New York and the Cellar Door in Washington, DC. He has performed with Mickey Gilley, Jesse Colin Young, Eddie Rabbitt, Aztec-Two Step, David Bromberg, and Livingston Taylor. Nininger combines the composition, the song, and the laughter for a very enjoyable performance. Aug. 22

BOB NORMAN was the editor of Sing Out!, the leading American folk music magazine, from 1970 to 1977, and now he's chairman of its board of directors. In 1978, he began a new career as a singer and songwriter. Since then he's appeared in major clubs, coffeehouses, concerts, and festivals from Boston to San Diego, sharing the stage with folk legends like Pete Seeger, Tom Paxton, and Dave Van Ronk. In 1988, Night Owl Records released his first album of original songs, Romantic Nights on the Upper West Side. Aug. 19

The OLD WORLD FOLK BAND of Harrisburg, Pa., was formed in 1982. They perform European, folk, polka, Klezmer and Yiddish music. Instrumentation includes piano, guitar, mandolin, strings, flute, French horn, and trumpet. The group has two recordings on the Silco/Alcazar label. In 1988, they performed at the Smithsonian Institute Mall and the Longwood Gardens Amphitheatre. They last performed at Musikfest in 1987. MEET THE ARTISTS! Aug. 19

Philadelphia-based ONE ALTERNATIVE is a trio that offers original instrumental music that is a blend of classical, folk, jazz and popular styles. The trio has been playing together for six years and includes Jill Haley on oboe and English horn, and Mark Oppenlander and Peter Sittler playing classical and six-string guitar. The group performs throughout the East Coast for enthusiastic audiences. They have opened for acts such as Oregon, Spyro Gyra, and Pentangle and have released two albums. Aug. 27

OVERSEAS CHINESE CHILDREN'S CHORUS OF NEW YORK has been performing together for three years, under the auspices of the Chinese Cultural Service Center in Flushing, New York. Pi-Chu Hsiao is the conductor, and Pi-Chu Kuo is the accompanist. The chorus' debut performance was at the Merkin Concert Hall, New York, in 1988. The chorus also performed with YIP's Children's Choir of Hong Kong at Avery Fisher Hall, New York, in 1987. They have sung at various Chinese events, and children between the ages of eight and sixteen, who are interested in singing Chinese songs, are welcome to join. Aug. 24

RAY OWEN is an award-winning songwriter, who has been playing music for a long time. After having mastered the radio, he quickly moved on to six- and twelve-string guitar, harmonica, banjo, concertina, and mandolin. He has performed all across the country and has toured Europe. His concerts have been with such notables as Arlo Guthrie, Doc Watson, and Tom Rush. Owen has a repertoire of over 600 songs and a huge collection of stories and anecdotes. Aug. 23

PAN'S FANCY plays popular Renaissance tunes, English country dances, and French court and folk music. They have performed at festivals, community centers, colleges, radio shows, and schools from New Hampshire to Kansas. Edwin George, recorders and bagpipes, has performed at the Spoleto Festivals in South Carolina, as well as in New York City and Canada. His partner, Karen Meyers, has played lute with Renaissance and Baroque ensembles in New York, North Carolina, Philadelphia, Munich, and Mexico, before taking up the hurdy-gurdy in order to make as much noise as George. Their first recording, Pan's Fancy, Their First, was released this spring. Aug. 21

PAVLOV'S DAWGS plays traditional bluegrass, new twists on old hot picking instruments, and some rather strange versions of punk music, in a bluegrass manner, of course. They have performed at Phil Stahl's Acoustic Showcase, Mayfair, New Hope, and Godfrey Daniels. Members are Rich Bernardin, mandolin and vocals; Tom Walz, bass and vocals; Michael Beaky, banjo; and Jesse Grim, lead guitar and vocals. Aug. 25

Dance and play with BARBARA PEARSON of Bethlehem, a choreographer, dance teacher, consultant and performer. She teaches dance and movement in her own studio in downtown Bethlehem and in schools, colleges and community centers throughout the state. Pearson has performed at every Musikfest since 1984. She involves children as well as their parents in a series of musical and rhythmic dances and games. Aug. 25, 26

THE PENNSYLVANIA ALPINERS of Danville, Pa., have performed at many German festivals in Pennsylvania, New York and Vermont. The band features yodelers Dick Dorn and Alvera Lemon, a 12-foot Alphorn, tuned cow bells, a singing saw, and carpenters chimes. The group's performances have been complimented by Bob Hope and other notables. The Alpiners were the featured band at the 1983 New York State Fair for the German American Tricentennial. Aug. 20

PENNSYLVANIA PLAYHOUSE, a non-profit community theater, dates back to 1926 and was incorporated in 1946. They have been at their current location on Illick's Mill Road in Bethlehem since 1965. Governed by a 17-member board, the Playhouse presents several productions each year. For Musikfest '89, they will perform selections from "Pippin" at Liederplatz and "The Best of Frank Loesser" at Familienplatz. Aug. 26

Allentown's PENNSYLVANIA SINFONIA ORCHESTRA, founded and conducted by Dr. Allan Birney, is a regional professional orchestra that was begun as the Valley Camerata in 1970. It annually presents a five-concert subscription series as well as a three-concert summer Baroque festival called "Valley Vivaldi." The orchestra sponsors a concerto competition for high school students and has established a musical education program for young people in Lehigh and Northampton Counties. The orchestra's Asa Packer Series concert will feature Robert Bonfiglio, classical harmonica player. Bonfiglio has played with the Hollywood and Brooklyn Philharmonics and with the Milwaukee Symphony. He has recorded the sound track for Kramer vs. Kramer and Places in the Heart. He recently signed a long-term recording contract with RCA Victor Red Seal. Aug. 20

PENNSYLVANIA YOUTH THEATRE provides theatre education for Lehigh Valley young people between the ages of four and 18 through drama classes, participation in plays and musicals, and attendance at quality performances created specifically by and for young people. In addition to the season for 1988-1989, they have produced the "Wizard of Oz," "The Miracle Worker," "Cinderella," and "Peter Pan" to an ever-growing audience who come from as far away as Harrisburg and Reading, Pa., New Jersey, and Connecticut. Aug. 26, 27

The PHILADELPHIA BRASS ENSEMBLE performs Renaissance and contemporary music. The ensemble's synergy arises from its members' broad scope of playing experience including the Lehigh Valley Chamber Orchestra, Allentown Symphony, Bethlehem Bach Festival Orchestra, Philadelphia Orchestra, and New York Metropolitan Opera Company, to name a few. Since its inception in 1984, the group has performed throughout eastern Pennsylvania. It was a 1987 finalist in the Rafael Mendez Brass Quintet Competition and is the quintet-in-residence in Philadelphia's historic Christ Church. Aug. 24

PLYWOOD CATTLE COMPANY is an old-time string band that mixes mountain music, cajun reels and waltzes, with some old-fashioned western swing, humor, and storytelling. Their instrumentation is fiddle, banjo, guitar and washtub; the plywood herd is by Suzanne Andrews. Members are Dan Brown, George Huhn, Al Walton and Andy Andrews. The group has won numerous awards and has performed at various festivals throughout the northeast United States. When they aren't touring, they rehearse in the Plywood Cattle Ranch bunkhouse in Paoli, Pa. Aug. 20

POLLY WALLY, the clown artist, doodles all the day with balloons, sculptures, and a touch of befuddled comedy magic. She has been a clown for over ten years and is a member of Clowns of America. In the past year, she has performed at the Philadelphia Zoo's "Tree House," Trump Plaza Casino, Dorney Park, and the Phillie Phanatic's Birthday Party. Aug. 26, 27

DIANE PONZIO has been performing since she was four years old. She is the Performing Artist for Martin Guitar, and this position has given her the pleasure of performing for audiences all over the world. She plays her Martin J40-M steel string acoustic guitar in colleges, concerts, hospitals, and clubs in the United States. Musician Magazine awarded her honors as one of their Best Unsigned Bands for her original songs; she is currently 'shopping' a tape of her contemporary pop tunes. Aug. 22

The PRETZEL CITY DIXIELAND JAZZ BAND performs New Orleans-style Dixieland with a little mix of comedy. The band originated in Reading, Pa., in 1983. They have performed for private and public parties and other festivals including Musikfest in 1987. The group is the official band for the Pennsylvania Conference of Teamsters. Aug. 26

A familiar figure on the Philadelphia folk music scene, STRETCH PYOTT has been calling old-timey square dances for over forty years, appearing at numerous festivals and colleges and at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington DC. He has been a regular at the Philadelphia Folk Festival, where fans look forward eagerly to dancing to his calls each year. He will be calling to the Plywood Cattle Company's tunes on Main Street this year. Pyott is also a storyteller, performing at folk clubs, festivals and schools. He will be sharing his tales at Familienplatz. Aug. 20

QUEEN BEE and the BLUE HORNETS specialize in rocking rhythm and blues in a contemporary, yet traditional fashion. The band, formed in State College, Pa., has been together for three years. They have shared the stage with Roy Buchanan, The Nighthawks, James Cotton, Johnny Winter and Maria Maldaur. The band's members are Tonya Browne, vocals; Mark Ross, guitar and vocals; Bill Stetz, bass and vocals; Rich Chillerri, drums and vocals; Charlie Schaffer, sax. Aug. 25

READING COMMUNITY GOSPEL CHOIR has been singing together for seven years. Comprised of members from the area between Reading and Easton, the chorus has traveled extensively from Massachusetts to South Carolina to Michigan. The group makes numerous appearances at community affairs, including the United Way Victory campaigns and Community General Hospital street fairs. They helped raise funds for the Home for Unwed Mothers in Washington, New Jersey and the Homeless Shelter in Reading. The chorus was a semi-finalist in the nationally sponsored Kentucky Fried Chicken Gospel Music Competition held in Philadelphia. Aug. 27

MARK REED & SONS are Shakey Jake, The Loveable Hobo Clown; Marquise, The Jolly Jester; Liket & Lumpet; Marcello & Pepperoni; Olde Witch Hazel; and Pierrot. The five members of the group include Reed and his sons, Lenny, 12, Simon, 11, Jake, 8, and Henry, 6. They travel about Musikfest performing at various places and in the streets. This is their sixth appearance at the festival. Aug. 21, 22

THE JOE REICHEL ORCHESTRA from Nazareth, Pa., has performed each year at Musikfest. The group is nine years old and "getting better." Reichel plays the trumpet and is accompanied by drums, flugelhorn, trumpets, saxophones, clarinet, keyboard, string bass, and bass horn. The orchestra plays big band, variety and polka music. Aug. 22, 26

The RICHARD REITER JAZZ QUINTET features Reiter on saxophone, clarinet and flute, plus Tricia Slasta, vocals; Richard Shulman, piano; Sue Williams, bass; and Luther Rix, drums. The band performs standards from the swing era and currently plays every Thursday night at the Montclair, New Jersey, nightclub, Trumpets. For their Musikfest performance, the group will also play some of Reiter's original compositions from the albums of his contemporary fusion band Crossing Point. Reiter has won an Emmy award for composition and has backed up notables such as Frank Sinatra and Nancy Wilson Aug. 25

RENWICK PLAYERS FLUTE ENSEMBLE is comprised of Lehigh Valley flutists who enjoy the experience of playing a variety of ensemble literature. They have compiled a repertoire that ranges from classical works to popular tunes, including marches. The ensemble members actively participate in other musical organizations around the community. Members are Suzanne Bleiler-Conrad, Kim Wesner-Seifert, Christina Brodt, Robin Dunstan, Vicky Garland, and Amy Williams. Aug. 25, 26

The RIVERBOAT BANJO BAND was formed 26 years ago by four men who enjoyed toe-tapping banjo music. The band plays songs from the Roaring Twenties, the Gay Nineties and older show tunes. Originally called the Banjo Four, the band changed its name in 1974, when it began playing the summer seasons at Dorney Park, where it continues to play. Every Friday evening in summer, they play at the Spring Valley Inn. The group also performs at political rallies and private parties. The band members are Ollie Krause, tuba; Mike Moll, trombone; Whitey Papillon, tenor banjo; Gerry Roth, trumpet; and Roger Tice, plectrum banjo. Aug. 23, 24

Born John Ramistella in New York City, JOHNNY RIVERS got his break in Hollywood, California, at a club on the Sunset Strip called The Whiskey A Go-Go. The combination of the Club and its star attraction started the Go-Go dance craze that swept America in the mid-sixties. He scored a string of hit records: "Memphis", "Mabeline", "Mountain of Love", "Poor Side of Town", "Baby, I Need Your Lovin'", "Secret Agent Man", and "Midnight Special", to name just a few. He was instrumental in the discovery, early promotion, or recording of talent such as Jimmy Webb, the Mamas and the Papas, and the Fifth Dimension. Rivers has had great success with his music publishing company, Rivers Music, and recording companies, Dunhill Records and Soul City Records. Aug. 25

JIM ROBERTS started out as a trumpet player and eventually gained familiarity with all the instruments of an orchestra. He studied French horn and classical piano at Ohio's Muskingum College and has performed with a number of jazz bands that he created while in college and the Air Force. Roberts is a composer of note and a brilliant arranger, much in demand around New York, the States and overseas. He returns to Musikfest by popular demand to perform a concert of solo jazz piano. Aug. 22

ROCKROOTS is a four member band that is three years old and includes Rick Levy and Dave Fry. The group presents an educational/musical history of rock 'n roll which traces the roots of pop music from ethnic dance music, to swing, jazz, blues, country, rock-a-billy, and rock, all the way to today's technological sounds. Rockroots have performed for over 15,000 students and is considered the "best" assembly program at almost every school. Aug. 24, 27

The MO ROLLAND-CRAIG POTTER DUO produces original music that is described as a "fusion of funk, blues, jazz, and rhythm and blues." Rolland and Potter have performed extensively in the Poconos and New York City for the past four years, including a 1989 appearance at the East Stroudsburg University Jazz Festival. They draw their material from a spectrum that ranges from the Big Band era to contemporary music. Rolland plays the saxophone and Potter the keyboards. Their skills are combined in instrumentation that makes a creative use of synthesizers, a drum machine and percussion. The duo is making its fourth Musikfest appearance. Aug. 26

JOHNNY ROMANN is a different sort of "combo". He performs on a Marine Band Hohner Harmonica and a Martin Tiple, an unusual stringed instrument made by the C.F. Martin Company of Nazareth, Pa. The musical sounds are amplified and mixed electronically, resulting in a one-man band that plays music from the 1890s to the 1940s. Aug. 23

The DAVE ROPER TRIO, which has been performing in the Lehigh Valley for 18 years, returns to Musikfest for its fourth appearance. The trio, which shows the engaging but easy listening influence of Errol Garner and Oscar Peterson, plays traditional popular music, often in a jazz mode. The trio has made two recordings which are available on tape. It includes Nick Diehm, drums; Roper, piano; and Charlie Siegfried, bass. Aug. 23

New York City singer/guitarist DAVID ROTH is an award winning musician who was invited to sing at the 40th Anniversary of the United Nations in New York. He tours across the States and Canada regularly. Incorporating influences from

Tom Paxton, Dan Fogelberg and Steve Goodman into his work, the Chicago native is often cited for his entertaining stage presence, accomplished guitar work and powerful singing and subject matter. His songs include "Don't Should On Me And I Won't Should on You" and the a cappella "Manuel Garcia," his critically acclaimed tale of one man's battle with cancer. Roth presents performances of folk and pop music. Aug. 21

JOHN SALVATO'S DUPREES were founded by Salvato. In 1963, the original Duprees were voted the number one vocal group in the United States, made the cover of Cash Box Magazine, and received a Gold Record from Coed Records for their million seller, "You Belong to Me". Other hits of that group include, "My Own True Love", "It's No Sin", "Have You Heard", and "Exodus". Today, Salvato has put together a talented group of vocalists and musicians that recreate the sound of the original Duprees. These four talented artists continue to bring a consortium of standard pop music that spans the last three decades to their audiences. Aug. 19

The SAUCON SQUARE AND ROUND DANCERS have been dancing in the area for over 21 years. The group, which has been appearing at Musikfest since 1985, also appears at other area events. The group meets several times each week at a Bethlehem church for dancing and instruction in both square and round dancing. They present dance to traditional country and western as well as contemporary music. Aug. 22

When DAN SEALS crossed over to the pop charts in 1986 with "Bop," the song marked his first "solo" pop success — but it was his 14th visit to the pop charts. "Half" of England Dan & John Ford Coley, he racked up hits such as "I'd Really Love To See You Tonight," "Nights Are Forever Without You," "We'll Never Have to Say Goodbye Again," and "Love is the Answer." Now as a solo country music performer, Seals has added to his credit many hits including "My Old Yellow Car," "My Baby's Got Good Timing," and "Meet Me In Montana" with Marie Osmond. His most recent album On The Front Line, is on the EMI/America label. Aug. 23

Hailing from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, THE SHADY GROVE BAND plays its own unique blend of bluegrass music old and new, traditional and original music. They have appeared at many of the largest bluegrass and folk festivals in the United States, Canada and Europe; have done six European tours; performed for colleges, clubs, radio and television; and have been selected for the Southern Arts Federation touring roster and five times for the North Carolina Touring Program. Now Flying Fish Recording artists, the band has released a second album, On The Line, and has an all instrumental album forthcoming this year. Aug. 22, 23

The SHANACHIANS, pronounced Sha.na.KEE.inz, are Chuck Barr, John Koester, Mitch Miller, and Ken Purcell. The Celtic group performs traditional Irish and Irish-American music on fiddle, guitar, mandolin, piano, pennywhistle, and bodhran (Irish goatskin drum). Koester is a champion fiddler of Berks, Lehigh, and Monroe Counties, and Barr tours Ireland each year to play at schools and pubs. The group has appeared with the Clancy Brothers. Aug. 19

AN EVENING WITH PHIL STAHL AND MIKE DUGAN will showcase some of the Lehigh Valley's most popular performers. Stahl performs contemporary folk and acoustic rock in addition to his own compositions. He is known for his "Open Mike" nights around the Valley and as the host of "Phil Stahl's Starlight Stage", a weekly feature on Suburban, Twin County, and Berks Cable services. He will be backed by Linda Major and Steve Cusumano. Dugan returned to play locally after performing in the Greenwich Village Blues circuit, receiving rave reviews from the New York City press. His blues group, the Survival Band, is made up of Bryan Schreiter, Scott Siska, and Dave Dionisi. Stahl and Dugan will end the concert by intergrating their bands, styles, and talents as the Phil Stahl/Mike Dugan "Band". Aug. 24

JOHN STANSELL and LARRY WRIGHT perform classical and baroque music. The duo originated at Moravian College in 1982 and have since performed at recitals in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Connecticut. Wright plays trumpet and is a graduate of the Juilliard School. He has performed with the New York Metropolitan Opera Co. and Spoleto Festival Orchestra and has recorded for radio and television. He is the principal trumpet with the Lehigh Valley Chamber Orchestra and Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra and associate principal of the Bethlehem Bach Festival Orchestra. John Stansell, organist, also graduated from Juilliard. His Alice Tully Hall, New York, debut in 1979 received high praise from New York critics. He has performed throughout the United States and Europe. He is the organist for the First Congregational Church in Old Greenwich, Connecticut and the Presbyterian Church in Rye, New York and is the organist-in-residence at Moravian College. Aug. 22

Dipping into the rich American tradition of blues, the STEAMIN' JIMMIES is a quartet that performs a repertoire of blues and contemporary popular music. They have opened for Gary U.S. Bonds and Buckwheat Zydeco. The band recently toured Holland and will return for a more extended European tour this fall. Performers are Lois Brownsey, bass and vocals; Leo "Sharkey" LaBarge, drums; Kent Heckman, guitar and vocals; Jerry Kozic, keyboards. On August 27, the Jimmies will be augmented by the "Sugar Cone Horns", whose members are George Young, Julian Sparacino, and Jim Buckley on sax; Rick Chamberlain, trombone; and Dan Wolfe, trumpet. The Jimmies are currently working on a new album. Aug. 21, 27

GARY STEIGERWALT and DANA MULLER are a husband and wife team who have been performing together for five years and have between them nearly 60 years of piano playing experience. The duo, which originated in New York, performs the unique chamber music of four-hand piano repertoire. This season they premiered David Macbride's "Still Awake, Steal Away" for two pianos and Amar Chaudhary's "Kaleidoscope in Blue" for piano four-hands. Steigerwalt teaches piano at Mount Holyoke College in Massachusetts and Muller teaches piano at the University of Hartford, Connecticut. MEET THE ARTISTS! Aug. 25

They have performed extensively in southeastern Pennsylvania. Aug. 20

"Dancin' with the Honeybees" is a presentation by CLIFF WRIGHT-SUNFLOWER. In 1987, he visited over 16,000 children and 10,000 adults with his Earth education program. He has performed in Ontario, at the Queens and New York Botanical Gardens, and at the Harvest Festival at Quiet Valley. He also has yearly shows at the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences and Kutztown Folk Festival. Wright-Sunflower uses a harmonica and Honeybear the puppet to get the audience involved in his participatory program of environmental theatre. Aug. 25

THE SUN RHYTHM SECTION presents authentic rock-a-billy music performed by the people who originated it and played it in the 1950s, people who worked with artists such as Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins, Roy Orbison and Warren Smith. These same musicians have banded together to bring back the unique feel and raw energy of this rock-a-billy music. Sonny Burgess performs on lead guitar and vocals and is the former leader of The Pacers. Smoochy Smith, who performs vocals and piano, was an original member of The Mar-Keys. D.J. Fontana was Elvis' drummer. Stan Kesler plays electric bass and worked with Roy Orbison, Carl Perkins, and Jerry Lee Lewis. Marcus Van Story, "slap" bass, vocals, harmonica and rhythm guitar, worked with The Miller Sisters. Paul Burlison, lead guitar, worked with The Rock & Roll Trio. Aug. 26

TAHYA PRESENTS DANSE ORIENTALE, with Troupe Bannat Tahya and Omar, captures the aura and mystique of Middle Eastern music and rhythms. Tahya founded the troupe of dancers known as Bannat Tahya in 1984. She has successfully produced several international dance events in Colorado and Pennsylvania, introducing audiences to a menagerie of Latin, Eastern, and African dance. Tahya has contributed to the choreography of Muhlenberg Theatre's productions of "Kismet" and "Candide". Bannat Tahya has performed at Lafayette College's "International Extravaganza", Mayfair, Good Shepherd's Annual Fun Fest and at Musikfest every year since 1984. Aug. 26

TATRA SLOVAK FOLK GROUP originated in Bethlehem in 1977 and is affiliated with the S.S. Cyril and Methodius Parish Church. The group consists of 22 members, who wear authentic Slovak costumes and perform songs and dances from their homeland in central Europe. The goal of the group is to preserve Slovak heritage and culture. One of their most memorable engagements was performing at the Statue of Liberty. Aug. 24

LIVINGSTON TAYLOR returns to Musikfest for a second time since 1987. Livingston was taught to play the guitar by his brother James at the age of 12. He says he has a close family relationship with his brothers and gets most of his "strength, energy and inspiration from my wife, Maggie, my brothers Alex, James, and Hugh, and my sister Kate." He plays the guitar, piano, and banjo, sings, and offers a program that includes comedy and variety as well as folk and popular music. He has released six albums including Life is Good on the Critique label. The album features guest performances by brother James, John Sebastian and Leah Kunkel. He shares a concert with Buskin & Batteau. Aug. 20

We've made an even stronger commitment to Bethlehem with our complete renovation. We're concentrating on our roots, under the tradition of excellence in this community, and are still growing strong in our effort to enhance that tradition.

It gives us great satisfaction to flourish along with this city, and hold fast to a sense of loyalty to the public that built both Downtown Bethlehem and the Orr's institution.

TIMES THREE is a mixture of three distinct vocal styles, ranges and personalities; it features Linda Dwyer, John Payne, and Mark Pennington. The group will transport its audience through different song stylings from jazz to doo-wop, standards of the 1940s to the hits of the 1960s, from today's popular and country music to yesterday's gospel greats. Several comedy/novelty numbers and original material are also incorporated into the show. Aug. 27

TIMLIN & KANE have been playing Irish traditional and contemporary folk music together for 15 years. Gerry Timlin grew up in County Tyrone, Ireland. Tom Kane is a native of Philadelphia. They have performed, by special request, for Governor Robert Casey at his Inauguration, and they have shared the stage with The Clancy Brothers, Robbie O'Connell, Makem and Clancy, and the Dubliners. For their Musikfest performance, they are joined on stage by JOHN LIONARONS, a vocalist and performer on the hammered dulcimer, guitar, accordion, and mandolin. His repertoire of over 250 songs encompasses Celtic and American ballads and dance tunes. They have released an album, Ships in Full Sail, which features instrumentals and Irish folk songs. Aug. 21

The JOLLY JOE TIMMER ORCHESTRA plays many kinds of polka music, including Polish, German and Slovenian. Timmer, a well-known polka band leader and radio and television host in the Lehigh Valley, started his musical career after high school graduation in 1948. He plays drums in his group and composes polka tunes. The band has played at the International Polka Association Convention in Chicago. Timmer owns a Bethlehem music store and a polka music grove in Bath, Pa. Aug. 22

JOHN TOMECSEK, III is a young magician and ventriloquist from Allentown. Working with his sister and assistant, Janna Sophia, and Five Star Magic and Variety shows, he produces illusions and tricks that baffle his audience. He has been performing since he was six years old and has several hundred shows to his credit. Tomcsek appears for many charitable organizations. He has performed at the Hershey Medical Center, Mayfair 1988, and at the Allentown Fair Pepsi Day. Aug. 26

TOUCHSTONE THEATRE, an original performing group at Musikfest, is a Bethlehem-based ensemble which has delighted audiences in 14 states, Europe, and Mexico with its original performances for adults and children. "By the Light of the Silvery Moon" is based on the children's book by Nola Langner. Performers are Mark McKenna and Sara Zielinska, with set and puppets designed by Doug Roysdon of Mock Turtle Marionettes. Follow Mona's path as she learns to stick up for herself in a very special Touchstone production. "The Three Sillies" is the new creation for the 1989 season. Watch a young man's journey to find three people sillier than his extraordinary potential in-laws — and be as amazed as he is when he finds them! Aug. 26, 27

PAT TROIANI is a Bethlehem singer/songwriter who has been performing original material and songs by other artists for 17 years. In 1979, he released an original single called "Fall in Love With You," which was played on local radio stations and juke boxes, and in 1982 he locally recorded and released an LP called Somewhere in Paradise. His latest record, Another Long Night, was released last year. He has appeared at Musikfest twice. Aug. 26

TUCKERS' TALES PUPPET THEATRE is a Delaware Valley-based performing company, a division of Puppet Perceptions, Inc., a non-profit arts and education corporation. SCOTT JACKSON WILEY and MARY HURLBUT will perform an evening of chamber music for the new Chamber Series. Hurlbut is a graduate of Mannes College of Music and a student of Antonia Lavanne. She has sung with the Brooklyn Lyric Opera, New York Opera Theatre, and Mannes College Opera Department. Hurlbut is extensively involved with chamber music repertoire, concentrating on contemporary works. She has sung for many living composers, including Aaron Copland, George Crumb, Lucas Foss, and John Cage. She has premiered works in Boston and New York and has had her performances broadcast on WNYC. Wiley, classical guitarist, has studied with Narciso Yepes, Emilio Pujol, and Mario Escudero and won first prize at the Conservatory of Barcelona, Spain. He is becoming established as a conductor as well. This summer he was invited to conduct and perform with the Orchestra at the Pierre Monteux Memorial School for Conductors in Hanover, Maine. He is currently studying conducting at Mannes College of Music and is an established soloist and chamber musician. Wiley teaches guitar and conducting at Moravian College. Aug. 24

ROBIN & LINDA WILLIAMS are country folk singers who combine old-time country and gospel music, blues, bluegrass and rock-a-billy on the guitar, banjo and mouth harp. The duo has shared a Peabody Award with A Prairie Home Companion and has appeared on numerous television shows and the major folk festivals throughout the United States. They have appeared with Tom Paxton, the Dirt Band and Hank Williams Jr. They have eight albums to their credit. Aug. 23

NANCY WILSON's musical style ranges from pop-style ballads to jazz to blues to show tunes. Her debut single "Guess Who I Saw Today" was followed by her first big hit "Tell Me The Truth" in 1963. Since that time, she has won numerous awards for her performances including a Grammy for her album How Glad I Am and an Emmy for her popular television program in 1975. After 35 years and some 50 albums, critics are still lauding her talents. Wilson also devotes time and talent to charities and community services, such as the Martin Luther King Center for Social Change, The National Urban Coalition, the Kennedy Center's Chairman's Commission, and the Johnson and Johnson Prenatal Care Promotion. Aug. 26

DANIEL K. WOMACK performs gospel music. Born in 1904, the son of a sharecropper and one of 13 children, he lived in the heart of the economic ruin and social disruption following the Civil War. His songs reflect the long history of black music ranging from a capella to renditions of long meter Primitive Baptist hymns like "I will Trust in the Lord" to famous spirituals like "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." He made his Carnegie Hall debut on February 16, 1985 and last performed at Musikfest in 1985. He appears at folk festivals throughout the United States. Aug. 20

WALTER WOODS AND THE JOLLY RHEINLAENDERS BAND based in Stroudsburg, Pa., plays for many Bavarian festivals and Oktoberfests in the Pocono Mountains. JANE D. RAMSEY, Art Director at Musselman Advertising, Inc., designed the 1989 Musikfest poster. She holds BA in design from the Cornish Institute of the Arts, Seattle, Washington and has an extensive background in art, illustration, design, photography, printing and television and radio production. Throughout her career, she has produced award-winning work in special media categories and has received recognition for excellence in design and printing. In her spare time, she can be found with her sketchbook in hand, creating renderings of historical architecture, particularly restored homes and barns. She will paint a rendition of the Musikfest '89 poster.

Ramsey is featured at Muralplatz on Saturday, August 19.

LINDSEY STASZAK of Easton received his MFA from the University of Cincinnati, Ohio, and BFA from the University of Wisconsin. He paints colorful, textural, panoramic landscapes of the Lehigh Valley and surrounding areas. Since 1977, he has exhibited work on a regional and national level. In Pennsylvania, he has exhibited at Open Space Gallery, Allentown, and Maria Feliz Gallery, Jim Thorpe. In 1988, his work was included in the "21st Biennial Exhibition" at the Allentown Art Museum. For Musikfest, his mural will be a rural panoramic view from Bucks County, Pa.

Staszak is featured at Muralplatz on Sunday, August 20.

GREGORY L. CANGIALOSI is originally from Hillside, New Jersey. He received his MFA from Southern Illinois University and his BA from Seton Hall University. His interests lie in aqueous media including acrylic, rhoplex and water-color. His paintings are bold often satirical observations on topical subjects including communication media and nuclear energy. A semi-cartoonlike style is also evident in his work as well as an intuitive color sense. He exhibited his work at Mayfair '89 and was recently represented at the Craft Alliance Gallery in St. Louis, Missouri. He is presently employed as an assistant curator and preparator by Lehigh University.

Cangialosi is featured at Muralplatz on Monday, August 21.

BENJAMIN LONG is an Allentown native and who majored in art at Moravian College. He is interested in mixed media constructions (paintings that are 3-dimensional) as well as black and white, and colored drawings. He recently won an award at the "National Drawing Competition" in Trenton Stage College, Trenton, New Jersey. He has exhibited his work throughout the east coast, and has had solo exhibitions at Moravian College, The Pennsylvania Playhouse and The Saurus Gallery, all in Bethlehem. He likes the mysterious and unexplainable elements that often happen in his work.

Long is featured at Muralplatz on Tuesday, August 22.

EDGAR S. BAUM has been actively painting since 1940. His work is influenced by his father, the late Walter E. Baum, renowned painter, teacher and art editor for the Philadelphia Bulletin for 25 years. His painting technique, inspired by his father's famous "Sunlight and Shadow" concept, has resulted in color symphonies of contrasting and complimentary color melodies, interplaying in strong vibrations, both teasing and pleasing to the eye. Baum has exhibited in The National Academy of Design, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, The Philadelphia, Allentown and Reading Art Museums, The Philadelphia Sketch Club (Gold Medal 1942) and many eastern colleges, universities and galleries, including the Duncan Galleries in New York and Paris. He is a member of the National Arts Club, and trustee and former president of the Baum School of Art.

Baum is featured at Muralplatz on Wednesday, August 23.

DAVID JOHNS, III has a BA in general fine arts from the Maryland Institute College of Art and an MFA in painting from the Hoffberger School of Painting, Baltimore, Maryland. He recently exhibited work at Baruch College, New York City, as part of a program called Four Emerging African American Artists. Johns was an education intern at the Brooklyn Museum where he coordinated activities to stimulate children's interest toward art and was awarded various grants and scholarships. His work has also been exhibited in Maryland and Kentucky. He currently serves as curatorial assistant at the Studio Museum in Harlem, New York.

Johns is featured at Muralplatz on Thursday, August 24.

BERRISFORD BOOTH has exhibited his work at the Meyerhoff Gallery, the Alternative Spaces Gallery, and The Park School Gallery all in Baltimore, Maryland, The Eye Gallery in Bristol, England, the Open Space Gallery in Allentown and the Gallery 124 in Kenosha, Wisconsin. He has received the Traveling Fellowship for Painting and the Detweiller Award for Painting. He graduated as a fine arts major from Lafayette College and has his MFA in painting from the Maryland Institute, College of Art, The Mount Royal Graduate School of Art.

Booth is featured at Muralplatz on Friday, August 25.

Museums and Galleries

The Bethlehem Area Chamber of Commerce Visitors Center
459 Old York Road, 2nd floor of Luckenbach Mill (Broad and Guetter Streets during December only), 215 / 868-1513 or 867-3788.

Visitors' information is available; free maps, brochures and calendars of events. A booklet for a self-guided walking tour of the historic area is nominally priced. Post cards, posters, prints, mugs, license plates, and other "Bethlehem" souvenirs are also sold.

18th Century Industrial Area

Entrances: Main Street and Ohio Road; South Main and Spring Streets; or Old York Road off Union Boulevard, 215 / 691-5300

Within a few years after Bethlehem's founding, the Moravian settlers had developed an industrial complex of 32 crafts and trades along the banks of the Monocacy Creek. Today, in this unusual ten acre area, guides in early Moravian dress explain the tanning process, and show visitors the reconstructed operating mechanisms in the 1762 Waterworks, considered the first municipal water-pumping system in the American Colonies. Visitors may view special exhibits and craft demonstrations during Musikfest between noon and 8 PM, daily. An 18th Century Industrial Area tour is available between noon and 4 PM, daily. Admission.

1810 Goundie House

501 Main Street, 215 / 691-6055

The Federal-style home of John Sebastian Goundie, a prominent Moravian brewer in early 19th century Bethlehem, was probably the first brick residence on Main Street. Visitors can learn about Goundie and his family from the furnished North Rooms. Admission. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 6 PM, daily. Historic Bethlehem Inc's museum shop remains open until 6 PM during Musikfest.

Kemerer Museum of Decorative Arts

427 N. New Street, 215 / 868-6868

A mid-nineteenth century townhouse with period rooms displaying Colonial and Victorian era furniture, oriental rugs, Bohemian glass, Lehigh Valley landscapes and tall case clocks. Exhibits include "I Collect", highlights from eclectic collections of the Kemerer volunteers and "Motivations", a study of American glass and the sources of inspiration in the design of mid-nineteenth century glass. An outside annex houses a firematic collection, including a 1698 hand pump fire engine. Guided tours. Musikfest hours are 1 PM-5 PM daily. Admission.

Frank and Seba Payne Gallery

Moravian College Church Street Campus, 215 / 861-1675

The Payne Gallery is located in the Center for Music and Art on the Church Street Campus of Moravian College. Exhibitions at the Payne Gallery address the historical traditions of the college and community as well as contemporary issues in the visual arts. Free. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 8 PM, Monday through Sunday.

Moravian Museums and Tours

66 W. Church Street, 215 / 867-0173

The Museum is housed in the Gemeinhaus built in 1741, the oldest building in Bethlehem. Early Moravian furniture, clocks, silver, musical instruments, religious articles, and Seminary art and needlework are featured and interpreted in guided tours. The Moravian Community Tour is available for groups of 10 or more by appointment only. Admission. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 5 PM, except for Sunday hours of 1 PM to 5 PM.

Apothecary Museum

Rear 420 Main Street, 215 / 867-0173

Set back from Main Street, with an entry gate next to the Moravian Book Shop, is the Apothecary Museum. Featured are retorts, grinders, mortars and pestles, scales, blown glass bottles, labels, a set of Delft jars (1743), and the original fireplace (1752) where prescriptions were compounded. Admission. Musikfest hours are 1 PM to 4 PM.

Sun Inn

564 Main Street, 215 / 866-1758

Constructed in 1758, the Sun Inn stands as a living symbol of Bethlehem's hospitality to travelers during the early years of our nation's history. During the American Revolution, the Sun Inn was honored by the presence of many of the founders of our nation. The restored inn is open to the public and visitors may tour the structure with interpretive guides. Admission. Musikfest hours are 11 AM to 6 PM. The inn is also open for lunch and dinner, and Musikfest hours for the adjacent gift shop are 10 AM to 10 PM daily, except Sundays, which are noon to 10 PM.

Muhlenberg Hospital Center Summer Festival

Schoenersville Road and Westgate Drive, 215 / 861-2200

Together - Caring and Sharing is the theme for the 28th annual Muhlenberg Hospital Center Summer Festival on August 17 through 20. Family and friends help to make our festival a success.

Why is Meridian a Principal Sponsor of Musikfest '89?

We helped create Musikfest, and we continue to support this major cultural tourism event. It's a part of our community relations program aimed at economic development.

Come and enjoy over 575 free performances from Bach to bluegrass at Musikfest '89, August 19-27 in the historic district of Bethlehem, Pa. There'll be international foods and beverages, special performances for children, and fun-filled times for the whole family.

We not only contribute our financial resources to Musikfest — we contribute our human resources, too. Many Meridian employees are among the volunteers working at all levels to make Musikfest '89 a tremendous success.

We're committed to the economic well-being of Bethlehem, the Lehigh Valley and the 12-county eastern Pennsylvania area we serve, and we're proud to be a founding and principal sponsor of Musikfest.

We congratulate Meridian officers Barbara Lampe and Ron Donchez for their election to the board of directors of Musikfest.
