

Arnold, Arthur A.

MADE SERGEANT

Cpl. Arthur A. Arnold, husband of the former Ruth B. Cortright, 952 School Street, was promoted to the rank of Sergeant while serving in Germany. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arnold, 206 Vineyard Street, he is serving with the 100th Division of the Field Artillery under the command of General Patch's Seventh Army. Sgt. Arnold trained at Camp Shelby, Miss.; Fort Bragg, N. C., and Camp Kilmer, N. J., before shipping overseas in October, 1944.

JUN 7 1945

Jun 7, 1945