

McCandless, Richard D.

Sent To Greenville

Word has been received by his family and friends that Pfc. Richard D. McCandless, United States Marine Corps, has been transferred to the Marine Air Corps Station at Greenville, N. C. He has been assigned to a fighter squadron.

After completing his boot training at Parris Island, S. C., Pvt. McCandless was transferred to the Marine Air Corps Station at Edenton, N. C., where he was stationed for two months, prior to arriving at Greenville.

Pvt. McCandless, who is the son of William McCandless, Sr., 419 East Broad Street, entered the service February 14, 1944. On July 7 he celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary.

July 27, 1944.