

Gadd, James M.

Area Men Flown From Overseas After Long Service

Flown from overseas in ocean-spanning ATC planes, Pennsylvania fighting men continue to pour into Air Transport Command's Miami Army Air Field. Among the first 50,000 returnees ATC is flying home are Pfc. James M. Gadd, 26, of 1522 Cottage Avenue, this city. He served 32 months in Italy with the antiaircraft. Returning from 41 months in the Mediterranean theater with four battle stars is Sgt. William Hefentrager, 119 Saucon Street, Hellertown.

Returning to Allentown are: Pfc. Peter Noga, 434 North Third Street, returning from 31½ months in Europe; Sgt. George J. Lehman Jr., engineer from 927½ South Hall Street, with 32 months duty in Italy to his credit, and S/Sgt. Clinton R. Becker, 815 North Eighth Street, who served with the antiaircraft in Italy for 30 months.

Jul. 3, 1945