

Leibold, James

Brothers In Navy Advance

JAMES LEIBOLD

WILLIAM LEIBOLD

James and William, two Navy sons of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Leibold, 628 West Market Street, were recently advanced in rating. James, now Fireman 1-c, completed a four-months electrical course at Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind. He entered the service in June, 1944, and completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. F 1-c Leibold is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School and is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. William, now Seaman 1-c, entered the service in February, 1944, and also completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. After completing training at Gunners School in Newport, R. I., he was assigned to a destroyer and has since crossed the equator twice. S 1-c Leibold is stationed at a Florida port at present.

JANUARY 26, 1945