Easton Girl Is Married to Bethlehemite

Miss Velma Trimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trimmer, of Easton, became the bride of Corp. Albert Kovacs, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kovacs, of 906 Weston Place, at a ceremony performed this afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Mark's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Easton. The Rev. Frank Teske, pastor officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Mildred Hoffstadt, soloist, sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Howard Pursell, organist, who also played the wedding marches. The altar was decorated with palms and cut flowers.

Miss Shirley Doyle, of Easton, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Catherine Pappas, also of Easton, Mrs. Ruth Prunest, of Phillipsburg, Mrs. John Papics, of Bloomsbury, N. J., and Mrs. Joseph Hochella, of Bethlehem, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Carol Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Frank, of Easton, was flower girl.

Millard Badman, of Bethlehem, served as best man, and ushers were Louis Kovacs, of Allentown, Joseph Kovacs, of Nazareth Road, Easton, Frank Kovacs, of Bethlehem,, brothers of the bridegroom, and Joseph Hochella, of Bethlehem, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a white satin gown of princess lines, with long veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and baby's breath. The maid of honor wore a pastel pink faille gown, a shoulder length veil and carried a shower bouquet of delphinia and pink roses.

The bridesmaids wore pastel blue gowns, patterned after the gown of the maid of honor, and they will carry similar bouquets. The flower girl wore a blue gown, juliet cap, and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

There was a reception in Malta Temple, South Seventh Street, immediately following the ceremony. The bride was graduated from Easton High School in 1941 and is employed at the Dixie-Vortex Company. She will reside with her parents for the duration.

Corp. Kovacs was graduated from Liberty High School, Bethlehem, in 1939, and entered the Army in January of this year. He is now stationed at the Army Air Base, Venice, Fla.
