

Nemeth, Frank

Bethlehem Flyer Is Honored

Frank Nemeth, 328 Pierce Street, Bethlehem, receives the Distinguished Flying Cross "for distinguished and meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight against the enemy in one of the most spectacular, daring and destructive raids ever attempted."

Nemeth, a former staff sergeant in the Army Air Corps, now discharged because of wounds, also received the Air Medal at the same ceremony for meritorious achievement on five operational sorties in the Middle East. He also holds the Distinguished Unit Badge, based on service rendered with the 98th Bombardment Group. The presentation was made by Capt. James I. Ferris, of the Air Technical Service Command.
