Three Brothers Promoted

Promotion all three of their sons who now are serving in the armed forces is the cheering news Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gottwald, of 623 Ontario Street, are telling their friends in town today. The Gottwalds are the parents of nine sons, four of whom are married.

Two of boys are in the navy. Bernard, 21, has just become a seaman second class and has been assigned to sea duty after completing training at Great Lakes Station, Ill. He enlisted on October 5, 1942. He told his parents of his promotion when he was home on a furlough on January 15.

Francis George, 27, is also a seaman second class now, having just gotten his advancement. He, too, Edward James, 23, is in the army and is stationed at Honolulu, Hawaii, with a Military Police unit. He was inducted on March 12, 1942, received his basic training at Fort Meade, Md., was sent thence to Camp Beauregard, La. and then to Texas.

EDWARD JAMES GOTTWALD

Edward's promotion to private first class was announced to his family shortly after the first of the year.

The three young men all attended the Holy Ghost parochial school, are members of that congregation and all are former employes of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

FRANCIS GEORGE GOTTWALD

was home on a furlough over the 15th. He enlisted on October 22, last. At present he is taking special training at the Naval Armed Guard School at Little Creek, Va.
