

Faust, Ray E.

Lt. Faust Spends
"Recess" At Resort

NOV 27 1944

Lt. Ray E. Faust, husband of Virginia L. Andrews of Landis Mill Road, recently enjoyed a "recess" from aerial warfare at an Air Service Command rest center, an English seaside resort hotel, where America's airmen who provide aerial cover for the advancing Allied armies in Germany may relax between missions.

After seven days he went back to his combat station ready to play his part once again in the air battle supporting the Allied march across Germany. Lt. Faust has completed missions with the First Allied Airborne Army over Normandy and Holland. Before entering the Army he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
