

White, Raymond R.

To Begin Navy Training

Raymond R. White, son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond H. White, of Glenside, will begin active training with the Naval Officers Reserve at Dartmouth College on February 4. Mr. White received his high school education in Douglas, Wyoming, and at George Washington High School in New York City. He was graduated from Lehigh University in 1940 and received a Master of Arts degree in History in 1941.

For the past two years he has been employed in the Industrial Relations Department of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Mr. White is a member of the Wesley Methodist Church and the Methodist Youth Fellowship and was assistant scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop No. 4.

On Thursday, January 23, a farewell party for Mr. White was held at the home of Miss Inez Ivey, 315 East Garrison Street. Present were Helen Hartney, Agnes Hartney, Jane Hill, Nancy Bahnson, Mary Bahnson, Inez Ivey, Raymond White, Amos Proctor, Harold Croxton, Joseph Peters, Martin Edwards and Louis Hill.
