

Basile, John J.

City and County Men Join Navy During August

SEP 7 1944

The majority of the 73 men, mostly 17-year-olds, who enlisted in the U. S. Navy last month through the recruiting activities of the Allentown recruiting office of the Navy, came from Northampton County, including 25 from Bethlehem. Chief A. C. McGranary, recruiter in charge, yesterday released the names of the new enlistees from Northampton, Bucks and Montgomery Counties:

They are as follows:

From Bethlehem—John J. Basile, Theodore R. Borda, Charles G. Bracko, John P. Collins, James C. Daluisio, Alan C. Dillman, Charles L. Donchez, Morris G. Feilbach, Francis J. Hartigan, Joseph J. Hornak, Michael T. Horvath, Bernard J. Kametz, Joseph F. Kozo, John H. Lewis, Louis M. Maio, Harold F. Newton, William F. Peters, Richard F. Pfeifle, Francis A. Pribula, Donald L. Ritter, Carl C. Spengler, Harry R. Straus, Roy L. Tarboro, Russell A. Varner, Glenn L. Williams.

From Easton—Robert J. Cote, John S. Evans, Joseph R. Detling, Thomas E. Ealer, Guido L. Florindi, Robert K. Geiger, Harold W. John, Charles E. Schenewolf, Charles R. Seibel, Adam H. VanHorn Jr., Robert K. Walters, Stanford E. Wessman, Jack W. Wyker.

Others included Melvin W. Bortz, of Stockertown, Lester W. Resh of Mt. Bethel, Joseph F. Reibman of Springtown, George P. Butscher of Quakertown R. 2, Alexander Kowal of Quakertown R. 1, John Dorozowski of Bath R. 2, Frank J. Petz of Bath, Elwood Luke Oslin of Bangor R. 1, Roland M. Weidman of Bangor, Robert P. Berger of Nazareth R. 3, Warren L. Smith of Nazareth, Robert R. Raesley of Portland, James L. Savercool of Pen Argyl. Also Robert E. Lewis of Phillipsburg, N. J., and James W. Eck Jr., of Shamrock Station.

Aug. 7, 1944