

Smith, Dorothy E.

COMMENDED FEB 24 1944

Mrs. James L. Smith of 638 Jischke, Bethlehem, is in receipt of a communication from the commanding officer of the WAC company in which her daughter, Pvt. Dorothy E. Smith, is serving at Camp Atterbury, Ind., commending Pvt. Smith for her "cooperation and interest" in her work. The writer believes that the young woman will find her experience in the WACs of great benefit to her after the war.
