

Shelldrake, Robert

HOME FROM TEXAS CAMP

Staff Sgt. Robert Shelldrake, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shelldrake, 1622 West North Street, is home from Camp Howze, Texas, on a ten-day furlough. Sgt. Shelldrake, who marked his first year in the infantry of Uncle Sam's Army Sunday last, will return Tuesday to his post. He admits that the infantry is the "most important branch of the service" but thinks Texas is a bit far from home. JUN 19 1943

June 19, 1943