

Yasko, Serg. B.

Graduated From Fire Control School

This week the Army Air Forces Training Command announced that Serg. B. Yasko, son of Mrs. Marion Yasko, 608 Pierce Street, graduated from the School of Fire Control at Lowry Field, Denver, Colorado.

Serg. Yasko, who received the rank of Sergeant February of this year, is now equipped to deal with the operation and maintenance of power turrets, bombsights and automatic pilots found on Uncle Sam's heavy bombers.

JUN 9 1944

Jun. 9, 1944