

McIntyre, Joseph J.

Liberty High Teacher Inducted Into U. S. Army

Joseph J. McIntyre, instructor in junior and senior history at Liberty High School since 1938, has been ordered to report for induction and will leave Saturday morning for New Cumberland.

McIntyre, who holds a B. S. degree in education at Lafayette College and a M. A. degree at the University of Pennsylvania, resides with his wife and son at 1723 West North Street, Bethlehem. He is a son of Marketmaster and Mrs. James C. McIntyre, 728 Eighth Avenue, Bethlehem, and is the second member of the family to be inducted.

A younger brother, William, captain of the Liberty High School 1942-43 tennis team, was inducted in February following graduation from high school and is now receiving basic training at Camp Swift, Texas.

Joseph won letters in football, baseball and basketball at Bethlehem High School, where he was graduated in 1933, Allentown Preparatory School, where he finished in 1934 and Lafayette where he graduated in 1938.
