

Hochella, Elwood M.

Lieut. Hochella Takes Bride At Allentown

DEC 12 1943

At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, the marriage of Miss Evelyn Mae Henning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Henning, of Allentown, and Lieut. Elwood M. Hochella, son of Michael A. Hochella, 410 Grandview Boulevard, this city, was solemnized in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Allentown. The Rev. Dr. George Greiss officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, a Juliet cap of seed pearls and veil of net. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia centered with an orchid.

Miss Ethel M. Hochella, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore an aqua satin gown. The bridesmaids, Misses Jean Gehman, Fern Muthart, Lillian Lova and Mrs. Edwin Fry, of Allentown, were gowned in ice blue satin. They all wore matching ostrich tip plumes in their hair and carried Colonial bouquets of pink daisies and pink rosebuds.

Anna Mae Weaver, cousin of the bride, and Mary Hochella, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. Their dresses were of pink satin, fashioned on those of the other attendants and they wore Dutch caps of net to match. Both carried miniature nosegays. Gill Bahl, of Allentown, was the ring bearer.

Lieut. James E. Crutz, of Phillipsburg, Pa., was the bridegroom's best man, while four cadets from Kutztown State Teachers' College were ushers and formed a court of honor after the ceremony.

The church was decorated with palms and white carnations. Dr. Warren F. Acker, church organist, played the traditional wedding marches and gave a recital before the ceremony.

A reception followed in the Hotel Bethlehem.

The bride is a graduate of Allentown High School and attended Allentown Business College. She is employed by the Bell Telephone Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of Liberty High School and was employed in the combustion department of the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the service. He is stationed at Liberal, Kan., with the Army Air Corps.
