

Schuhmann, Donald

Cpl. Donald Schuhmann
Observing Birthday
Today in Okinawa

Cpl. Donald Schuhmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schuhmann, 1910 Major Street, is celebrating his 21st birthday anniversary on Okinawa today. A member of the Sixth Marine Division, he has been serving overseas since last Fall. He enlisted in the Marine Corps immediately after graduation from Liberty High School in 1942, and was sent to Parris Island, S. C., where he trained on the rifle range. He was then transferred to Camp Lejeune, N. C., where he coached in rifle shooting prior to shipping overseas.

Cpl. Schuhmann is a member of the 29th Division, which stormed Sugar Loaf Hill and successfully held it on the 11th try for 36 hours before replacements came.
